

TEN THOUSAND SIGN PETITION

County Option Adherents Present Their Thunder While Many Members Are Absent.

KILL PLAN FOR DYNAMITE FACTORY

Assembly Decides Not To Permit The Manufacture Of This Explosive At The State Prison At Waupun.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., March 12.—With but a small proportion of the members of the legislature in their seats one of the first items in the campaign for the passage of a county measure was the petitioning of a monster petition was presented to the assembly.

Ten Thousand Names.—The petition is signed by ten thousand residents of the state and was presented to the legislature in the morning of the session. It is the first real active move on the part of the supporters of the law.

No Factory.—The assembly also killed the bill which would have established a dynamite factory at the state prison at Waupun after a long debate in which the adherents of the measure made strong efforts to have a favorable vote taken.

After Attorneys.—The senatorial investigation this morning developed much activity in the Stephenson campaign on the part of many prominent railway attorneys throughout the state. Facts to substantiate this were forthcoming at the quiz today.

Continued Monday.—The senatorial quiz will be continued Monday by which time it is expected the lists of the men wanted will be made out and they will be summoned to appear at dates that will not congest the inquiry or delay their work.

The boldest robberies ever attempted in the city was pulled off last night when Hoyer Bros. Clothing Co.'s store was robbed of clothing valued at $250.

Wanted Round Up.—Upon receipt of the news of the assassination of Joseph Petrosino, chief of detectives of New York, the police department here last night, the police of the large cities making them to round up every "Black Hand" suspect in their locality.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Do Not Think That.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

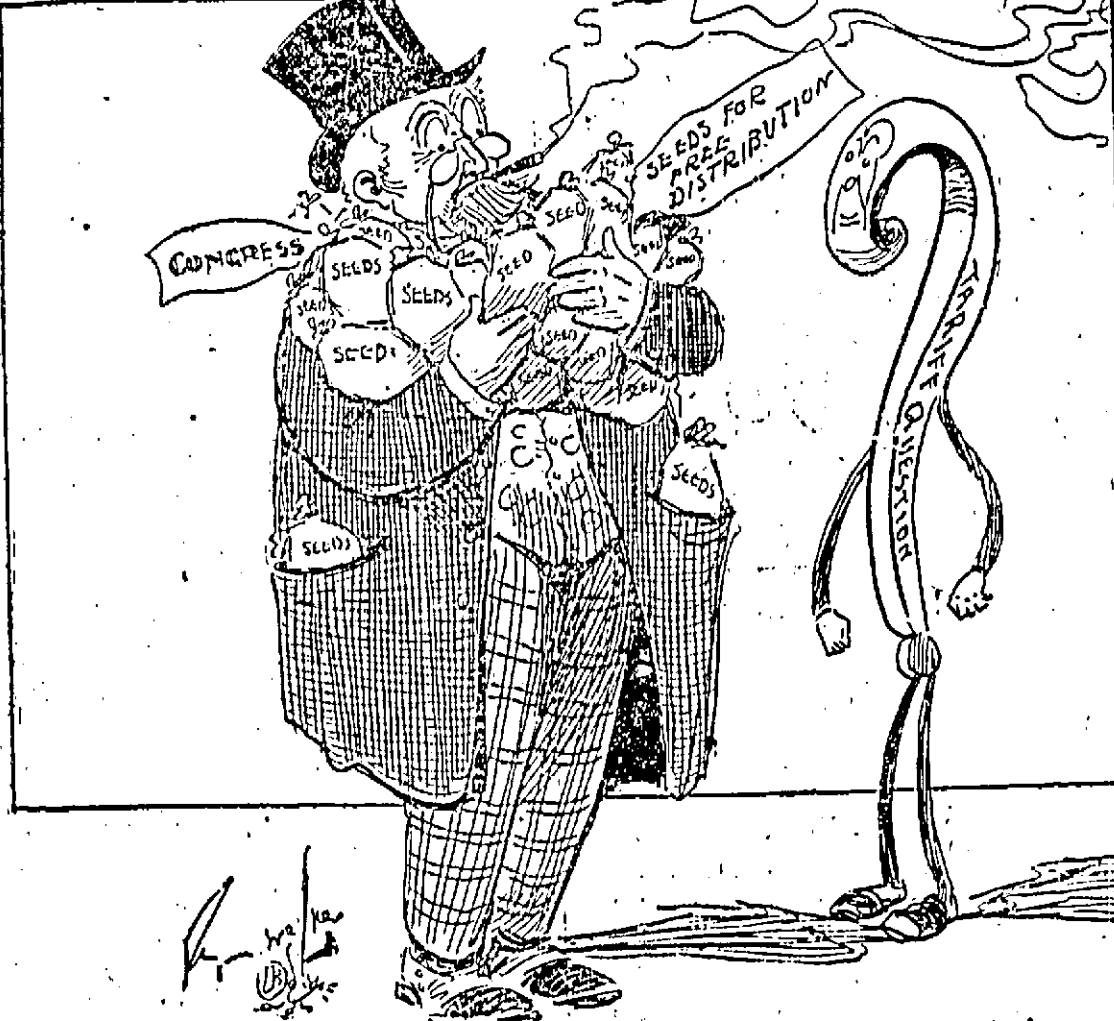

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Peace Is Certainly.—Possibilities View of the Situation Relative to Dual Empire And Service.

Congress—Gracious! How can you expect me to pay any attention to you. Don't you see that I have my hands full?

ANOTHER LONG WALK PLANNED BY WESTON

Famous Pedestrian Will Start on Hike From New York to Frisco on Monday, His 70th Birthday.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New York, March 12.—Edward Weston, the famous pedestrian, will be seventy years old Monday and he plans to signalize the anniversary by starting on a walk from this city to San Francisco. The feat will be undertaken in fulfillment of a promise made 30 years ago when Mr. Weston made the Aukley boat with a record of 550 miles in 142 hours. The famous pedestrian told Sir John Astley then that he would be in condition on his seventh birthday to begin a task which would exceed his previous feat.

Mr. Weston expects to complete his walk across the continent in 700 days. The distance, as he estimates, is about 4,000 miles. He will travel through Troy, Albany, Utica, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Columbus, Toledo, Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Yellowstone Park, Tacoma, Portland, Oakland, San Jose and San Francisco. Following the custom of his life, the veteran pedestrian and record breaker will not walk on Sunday, but will take the seventh day for rest. He intends to deliver lectures at points on the road.

Weston has been a recognized factor in pedestrianism since 1881, at which time he walked from Boston to Washington to witness the inauguration of President Lincoln. He traversed the distance of 453 miles in 100 hours. In 1887 he made his first long-distance walk from Portland, Me., to Chicago, starting Oct. 23 and arriving at his destination Oct. 28. Two years ago, when sixty-eight years of age, he eclipsed his previous record by covering the distance between Portland and the late seaport and early nightingale he accomplished many remarkable feats of pedestrianism. His world-wide recognition came in 1879, June 21, when he covered the remarkable distance of 550 miles in six days. This was in London and his only competitor was "Thos. Brown," who had a record of 542 miles.

When 54 years of age—Don. 18, 1885—Weston undertook the walk from New York City to Albany, a distance of 143 miles, starting at 9 o'clock Monday evening and calculating to reach his destination Thursday evening by 8 o'clock. Great interest was taken in this endeavor and thousands of people gathered along the way to see him. He arrived at the capital in Albany more than 11 hours ahead of his schedule, was returned by train to this city and given a testimonial in Chelkerling Hall.

TO HOLD MEETINGS TO DECIDE MATTERS

Three Anthracite Coal Districts to Gather at Scranton on March 23.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Philadelphia, Pa., March 12.—Three anthracite district executive boards of the miners' union will hold a convention in Scranton March 23 and will adopt plans for making further efforts to obtain from the coal companies a new agreement to take the place of the one expiring March 31.

TELEGRAPHERS HAVE TIED UP WHOLE CITY

Paris, France, Is Shut Off from Communication with the Outside World.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Paris, March 12, 5:20 p. m.—This city has been cut off from telegraphic communication with the outside world since two o'clock this afternoon, when a general strike occurred following the disorderly incidents of last night at the central telegraphic bureau of the postoffice.

LABOR PLANS A BIG PROTEST AT BOSTON

40,000 Union Members Will March to Faneuil Hall Tomorrow to Speak Out For Compens.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Boston, Mass., March 12.—Forty thousand members of the labor unions of Boston and vicinity will march tomorrow afternoon to Faneuil Hall to attend a meeting of protest against the sentencing of President Compens, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, the alleged encroachments of the judiciary on the rights of free speech, free press, trial by jury and other rights guaranteed by the constitution, and to take further steps to secure legislation to define and limit the powers of judges in injunction cases.

It is expected that the demonstration will exceed in number any of the kind ever held in this country. The labor organizations will assemble in ten divisions and march to Faneuil Hall, each division to be headed by a big volunteer band from the neighborhood.

FAT STOCK SHOW IN FORT WORTH

National Feeders and Breeders' Big Exhibit Is Ready for the Admission of Spectators.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Fort Worth, Texas, March 12.—With a record-breaking number of animals in exhibition of the National Feeders and Breeders' show is ready for its opening in the amphitheatre grounds at the handsome buildings in North Fort Worth. Patterened, pampered and groomed until they look their best, the mighty assemblage of cattle, horses, swine and sheep are awaiting the admiration of the thousands of spectators who will visit the exhibition during the coming week.

The poultry show, which has been made a leading department of the exhibition this year, comprises a mammoth display of fancy birds, chickens, ducks, turkeys and geese. In connection with the exhibition the Texas Cattle Riders' association will hold its annual convention, beginning its sessions Tuesday and continuing for three days.

INSTRUMENTS SHOW A SERIOUS QUAKE

Earthquake Is Said to Have Shown Considerable Violence During Its Vibration.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Manila, March 12.—Local seismographs recorded serious earthquakes continuously from 7:20 to 8:40 this morning. It is estimated the region of disturbance was ten thousand kilometers distant.

GRAND MASTERS CELEBRATE IN VINCENNES, INDIANA

Thousand or More of Members of Masonic Lodges Are Gathered For 100th Anniversary.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Vincennes, Ind., March 12.—The Grand Masters from Wisconsin, Kentucky and Indiana and a thousand or more masons from nearby cities are here today celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the institution of Free Masonry in Indiana.

CIDOT-ORPHEE TEAM STILL LEADING IN SIX-DAY RACE

Are Nineteen Miles and Two Laps Ahead of Davis and Metkus—Other Team 35 Miles Behind.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
New York, March 12.—At two o'clock the score of the leaders in the six-day telegraph race was: Davis-Metkus, 704 miles and 3 laps; Davis-Metkus, 685 miles and 1 lap; Dineen-Prouty, 655 miles.

COMING WEEK TO BE A BUSY ONE

So Far As Affairs of State Are Concerned—New York Memorial to Cleveland-Bryan's Birthdays.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Washington, D. C., March 12.—Occupying first place on the calendar of events for the week will be the assembling of congress in extraordinary session Monday. The business of the session will be continued to tariff revision. Important changes in the existing tariff schedules are certain. The multitude and diversity of the interests affected by the proposed revision of the tariff renders the task a difficult one, but leading men of both parties are of the opinion that the work will be accomplished and the session ended within ten weeks. The House Ways and Means committee, upon which devolves the duty of framing the bill, has gone about its work under the impetus of a very strong public opinion favoring tariff reductions and with the moral sanction of a determined president.

President Taft expects to go to New York, Thursday, to speak at a great meeting to be held in Carnegie Hall in the afternoon of that day in memory of Grover Cleveland. Mayor McChesney will preside over the exercises and in addition to the president, the speakers will be Chief Justice Fuller of the United States supreme court and Governor Hughes of New York.

The election of a United States senator to succeed Philander Knox, who resigned to become secretary of state, is on the calendar of the Pennsylvania legislature for Tuesday. The choice of George T. Oliver, the Pittsburgh newspaper publisher, to fill the unexpired term, is conceded.

William J. Bryan will be forty-nine years old Friday and the democrats of Nebraska have arranged for a banquet to be given in his honor in Lincoln, at which Mr. Bryan will be the principal speaker.

The heroism of a young girl will be recognized at the capital in Washington Thursday, when a gold life-saving medal will be presented to Miss Mary McCann. At the time of the General Sherman disaster in New York Miss McCann, then only a little girl, was saved from a burning building by the association which held its annual convention, beginning its sessions Tuesday and continuing for three days.

AUTOMOBILE EXPO AT MINNEAPOLIS

Will Be Opened This Evening and Is to Be in Progress for a Week—Big Display Planned.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Minneapolis, Minn., March 12.—Two days of hard work on the part of the automobile dealers of Minneapolis has resulted in the gathering of the great show which is to undergo the first test of the public's opinion in the Armory tonight. It will be the second exhibition of its kind given in this city and from all indications it will be one of the most notable ever given in the Northwest. The show will continue through the coming week. The Armory has been tastefully decorated and every provision has been made for the comfort of visitors. The main floor and basement have been entirely filled with exhibits. The display embraces the 1909 models of the leading makes of motor cars, both American and foreign, together with a large and varied assortment of automobile accessories. Motorcycles also are well represented at the show.

LIABLE TO ALTER ENTIRE SYSTEMS

ONSTAD RESOLUTION IN STATE LEGISLATURE MOST RADICAL.
DISRUPT STATE'S POWER

As to the Taxation System and Work of Other Radical Changes in Government.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., March 12.—That the whole taxing power of the state might be disrupted if the Onstad resolution to amend the constitution were adopted is the opinion of some of the legislators. So far the resolution has escaped notice, but if it were ever enacted into the state constitution it would radically change the law of taxation in this state.

Assemblyman Onstad's resolution wipes out all phases of the constitution relating to taxation and leaves it to the legislature to exercise sole power and control in the matter of levying and collecting taxes. The present constitution provides that all taxation must be uniform, subject only to the additional power that an income tax may be levied. This last provision of the constitution came into effect this year.

The Onstad resolution provides as follows: "It is resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, that section 1 of article 8 of the constitution be amended to read:—"

Taxation shall be imposed in such manner as the legislature shall prescribe."

Assemblyman M. J. Cleary, chairman of the assembly committee on taxation, does not believe that the Onstad resolution will get very far, but its presentation to the legislature is said to indicate the drift of modern thought as regards taxation and also that future legislatures will have to wrestle with the constitutional limitations which the founders of the state held in high regard. If the Onstad resolution were ever passed the subject of changing the system of taxation would be one for determination by the legislature, which might fix any tax that it desired.

The most important matter to come before the taxation committee, aside from the consideration to be given the income tax problem, is whether the railroad taxes collected under the act of 1907, shall be distributed back to the counties. Several cities are urging such a measure and there is a possibility of passage.

The inquiry proposed that Senator Stephenson, if elected, would give $10,000 to the Lutheran Northwestern University, entered into the senatorial primary campaign, when yesterday afternoon Dr. J. P. Frank of Northville testified to the disbursement of about $200 for Stephenson. Frank said he was authorized by Rev. Mr. Eppinger, whose name heretofore has been associated with checks paid out by Stephenson, to make this promise through out Clark county, and to that end he hired Frank March to "work among the Lutherans" with this campaign argument.

The full significance of the testimony of State Game Warden J. W. Stone did not dawn fully upon the members of the legislature until yesterday, after they had an opportunity to digest it. Now it seems that the election of a United States senator to succeed Philander Knox, who resigned to become secretary of state, is on the calendar of the Pennsylvania legislature for Tuesday.

The choice of George T. Oliver, the Pittsburgh newspaper publisher, to fill the unexpired term, is conceded. William J. Bryan will be forty-nine years old Friday and the democrats of Nebraska have arranged for a banquet to be given in his honor in Lincoln, at which Mr. Bryan will be the principal speaker.

The heroism of a young girl will be recognized at the capital in Washington Thursday, when a gold life-saving medal will be presented to Miss Mary McCann. At the time of the General Sherman disaster in New York Miss McCann, then only a little girl, was saved from a burning building by the association which held its annual convention, beginning its sessions Tuesday and continuing for three days.

INSTRUMENTS SHOW A SERIOUS QUAKE

Earthquake Is Said to Have Shown Considerable Violence During Its Vibration.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Manila, March 12.—Local seismographs recorded serious earthquakes continuously from 7:20 to 8:40 this morning. It is estimated the region of disturbance was ten thousand kilometers distant.

GRAND MASTERS CELEBRATE IN VINCENNES, INDIANA

Thousand or More of Members of Masonic Lodges Are Gathered For 100th Anniversary.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Vincennes, Ind., March 12.—The Grand Masters from Wisconsin, Kentucky and Indiana and a thousand or more masons from nearby cities are here today celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the institution of Free Masonry in Indiana.

CIDOT-ORPHEE TEAM STILL LEADING IN SIX-DAY RACE

Are Nineteen Miles and Two Laps Ahead of Davis and Metkus—Other Team 35 Miles Behind.

SPECIAL TARIFF SESSION MONDAY

PRESIDENT TAFT'S MESSAGE ON DAY FOLLOWING.
WHAT OF MAJORITY BILL?

Continued Secretary Maintained But It Is Believed Iron, Steel, and Hide Schedules Will Be Reduced.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Washington, D. C., March 12.—Pursuant to the President's call for an extraordinary session of the Sixty-first Congress, the Senate and House will meet at noon Monday. The President's message relating to tariff revision probably will not be sent in until Tuesday. The message, as already announced, will recommend that the session continue its work exclusively to tariff revision that there may be no delay in enacting this most important law. The President will not discuss in his message any scheme of tariff revision leaving such matters entirely to the judgement of Congress.

In the Senate the routine program will be followed Monday. Vice President Sherman will call the Senate to order, and the President's proclamation calling the session will be read. A committee will be appointed to call upon the President and inform him that the Senate is in session, and another committee will similarly advise the House. Unless some Senator desires to talk upon a privileged matter, the only business of the Senate will be the opening formalities.

Business times will be witnessed in the House from the time that the Clerk calls that body to order at noon, reads the proclamation, and calls the roll of those entitled to seats in the Sixty-first Congress. After the election of House officers, committees will be appointed to wait upon the President and the Senate to notify both that the House is in session. Speaker Cannon is expected to have an hour in announcing the members of the new Ways and Means Committee. The fact that there are to be few changes in the personnel of the committee makes it certain that little time will be lost. The new committee will consist of the old members, filled out with such new appointments by the Speaker as are necessitated by all the places of Representatives from New York, both retired at the end of the Sixty-first Congress, and Graner of Rhode Island, who also recently resigned.

The Republican leaders are nearly all of the opinion that the tariff bill will be passed by June 1. The fact that President Taft and the members of the Senate and House who have most to do with turning the wheels of legislation are in thorough accord will not greatly hurry the bill through. Four weeks for debate and four weeks for thrashing out the differences between the two houses appears to be the program now in mind. The Democrats have it in their power to prolong their debates as much as they wish. But it is not believed now that they have any intention to embarrass the Republicans in such a manner. Of course, the Democratic leaders have their own ideas in regard to tariff revision and will not be backward in offering suggestions. There are in fact two bills drafted, one of the majority and one of the minority, though it is doubtful if the Democrats introduce their recommendations in such a form.

On the first day of the session Chairman Payne and Means Committee will introduce the majority bill and it will at once be referred to the committee. After two or three days it probably will be reported to the House, and the fight thereafter will be more or less in the open.

With Republicans continuing to maintain secrecy as regards the majority bill, agreed upon, though naturally some of the main features have leaked out. That there will be no numerical reductions in many important rates is acknowledged, but whether these reductions will be of a kind to encourage importation, thereby increasing the Government's revenue and local competition, is a matter that will come up certainly only with the publication of the next schedules.

The iron and steel schedules among those that will suffer the heaviest reductions. Hides will either be reduced materially or put on the free list, and a corresponding reduction may be made in finished shoes. In print paper and wood pulp schedules it is thought that the recommendations of the Mann committee probably will be embodied in the new bill. Mr. Mann recommended the reduction of the duty on news print paper from 30 to 25 cents a ton and advocated the placing of ground-wood on the free list if Canada can be induced to remove her export duty. No great changes are looked for in the silk and cotton schedules. The higher grades of cotton are requiring a greater amount of American labor, but the lower grades are let in under a correspondingly lower duty.

UPHOLD BY DECISION COMMISSION'S RULES

Federal Judge Goff of Baltimore Says Railroads Must Report All Over-time of Employees.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Baltimore, Md., March 12.—Federal Judge Goff today upheld the interstate commerce commission's order requiring the railroads to report all overtime work of employees engaged in the nine and sixteen hour scale.

QUARANTINE WILL BE TAKEN OFF IN TWO STATES SOON

Will Be Entirely Removed For Hoof and Mouth Disease in Michigan and Maryland.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, D. C., March 12.—The federal quarantine for the foot and mouth disease in cattle against Maryland and Michigan will be entirely lifted Monday as a result of an order issued by Secretary Wilson today.

QUARANTINE WILL BE TAKEN OFF IN TWO STATES SOON

Will Be Entirely Removed For Hoof and Mouth Disease in Michigan and Maryland.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, D. C., March 12.—The federal quarantine for the foot and mouth disease in cattle against Maryland and Michigan will be entirely lifted Monday as a result of an order issued by Secretary Wilson today.

QUARANTINE WILL BE TAKEN OFF IN TWO STATES SOON

Will Be Entirely Removed For Hoof and Mouth Disease in Michigan and Maryland.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Washington, D. C., March 12.—The federal quarantine for the foot and mouth disease in cattle against Maryland and Michigan will be entirely lifted Monday as a result of an order issued by Secretary Wilson today.

(Continued on Page 6.)

JOS. M. GAITES' SUPERB PRODUCTION 3 TWINS

BOOK by CHAS. DICKSON - MUSIC by KARL HOSCHNA - LYRICS by OTTO HAUERBACH

NEW YORK'S GREATEST MUSICAL COMEDY SUCCESS

5 MONTHS IN CHICAGO AT THE WHITNEY OPERA HOUSE

10 MONTHS IN NEW YORK

AT THE HERALD SQUARE THEATER AND STILL RUNNING

MYERS THEATRE

PETER L. MYERS, MANAGER.
1870 39TH YEAR 1003.
The Leading Theatre of Southern Wisconsin.
New Phone, 600. Wisconsin Phone, 5802.

Matinee and Evening, March 17th

Owing to the demand for seats for this engagement, Mr. Myers has arranged with the manager to play

SPECIAL MATINEE

This is, without fear of contradiction, the Greatest Musical Comedy Success America has ever known.

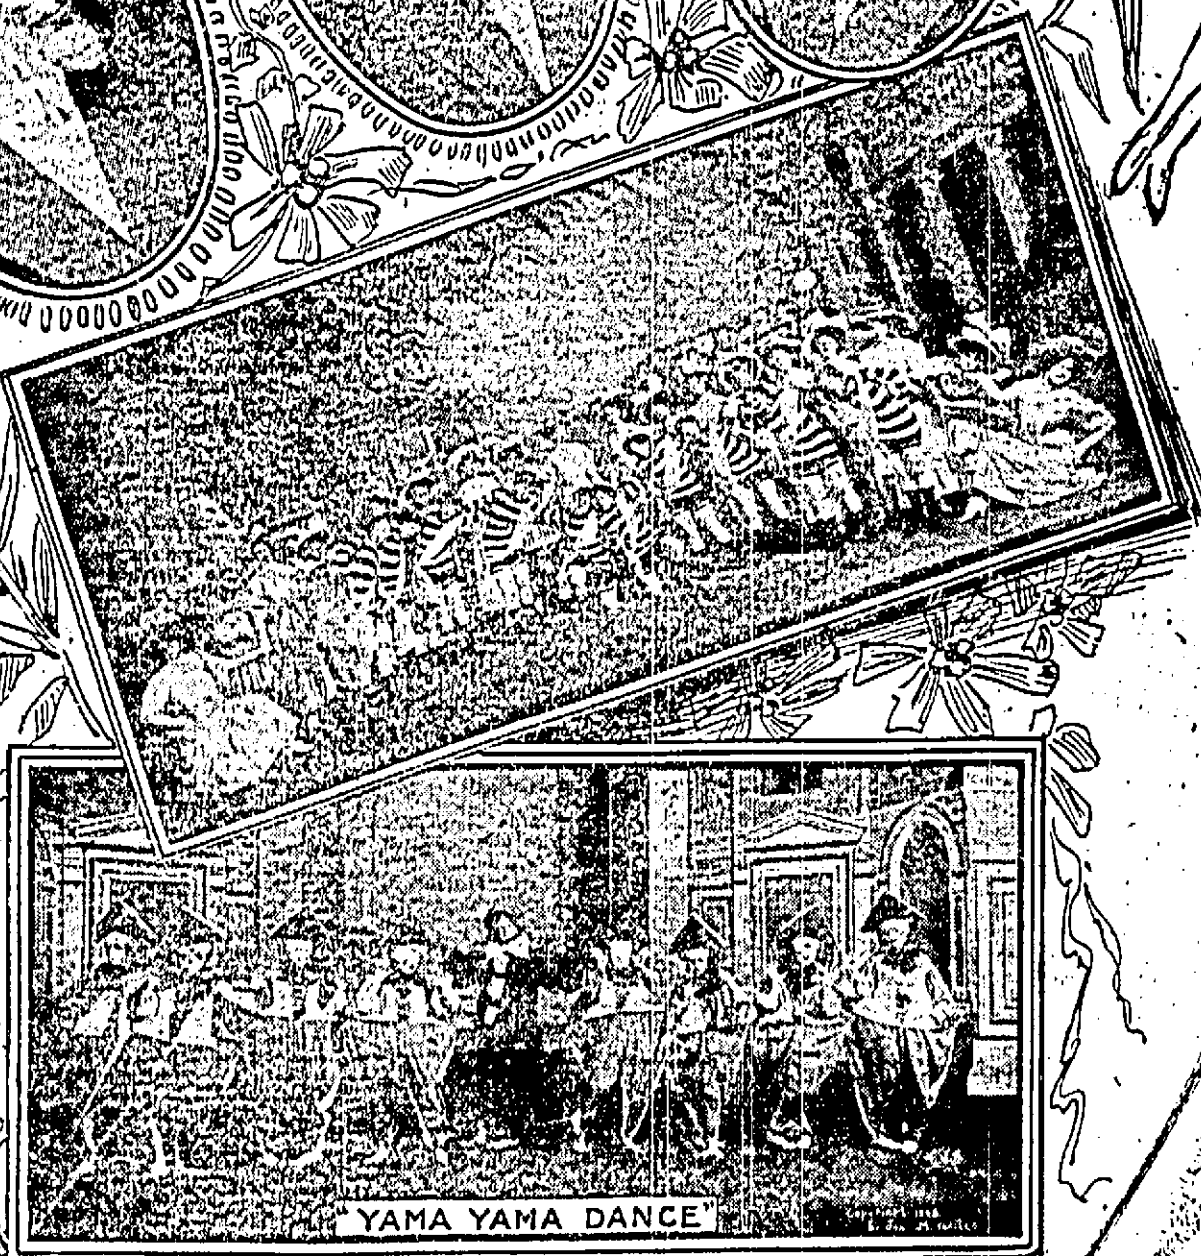

—PRICES—

MATINEE—Orchestra and circle, $1.00; first 4 rows balcony, 75c; remainder balcony, 50c; gallery, 25c.

EVENING—Orchestra and 2 rows circle, $1.50; balance circle, $1.00; first 4 rows balcony, $1.00; remainder balcony, 75c; gallery, 50c.

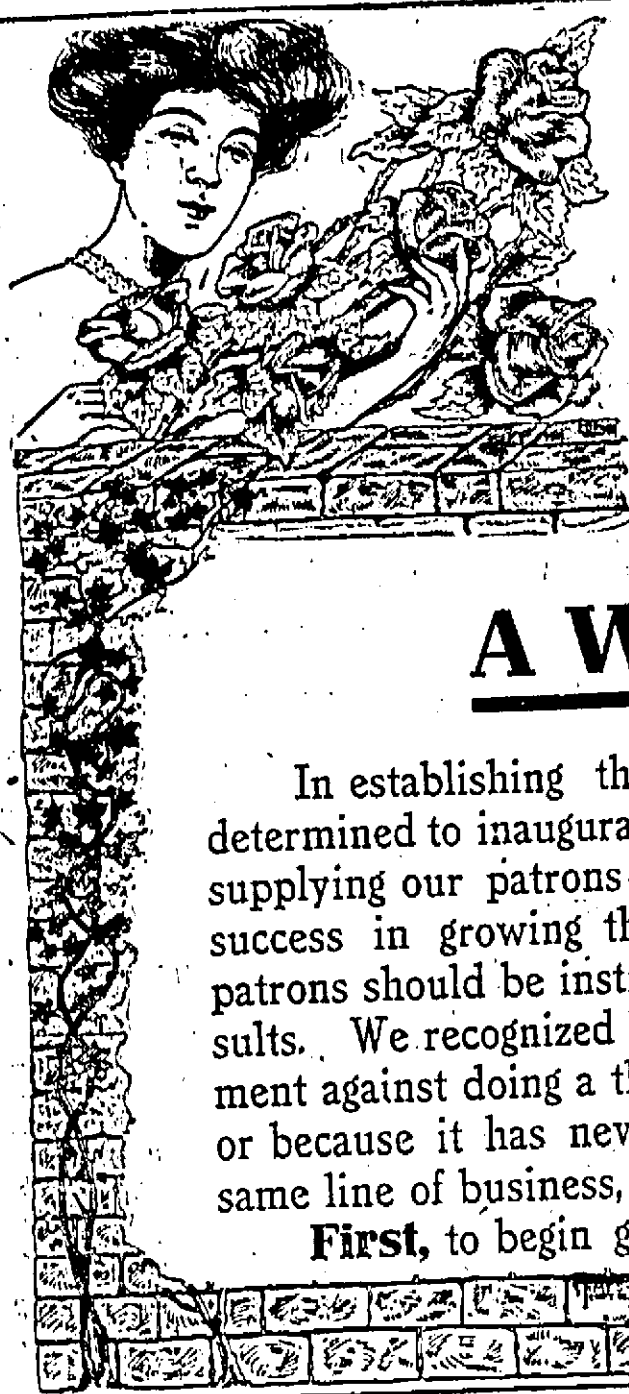

Salo opens Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Free list suspended.

Carriages: Matinee 5 o'clock; evening 11 o'clock. No seats will be held for this attraction. Mail orders filled in order received when accompanied by check or cash.

"YAMA YAMA DANCE"

THE SMARTEST MUSICAL COMEDY.

AT THE Dwight Greenhouses

THE spirit of commercialism is largely eliminated and flowers are grown for the pleasure derived from the work as well as supplying its patrons with the choicest flowers to adorn their homes and surroundings.

A Word About Our Aims and Methods

In establishing the Dwight Greenhouses we were determined to inaugurate some new ideas besides simply supplying our patrons with flowers, regardless of their success in growing them. Our idea was that our patrons should be instructed how to obtain the best results. We recognized the fact that there is no sane argument against doing a thing because it is not being done, or because it has never been done by others in the same line of business, so we decided

First, to begin giving the public the privilege of writing for any information they may want with reference to Floriculture. This means the opening of a regular information bureau for the public and all inquiries or letters will be promptly and cheerfully answered gratis.

Second. Another important feature will be the supplying of our patrons with free plans and specifications of how and what to plant. This will be a help to thousands of lovers of flowers who desire artistic lawns and grounds, but who lack the knowledge of how to properly arrange them. Beautiful lawns, grounds and flower gardens are prepared by us for the modest little cottage, factory sight and school ground, as well as for the most elaborate estate.

AN INVITATION

We extend a cordial invitation to everyone interested in flowers and beautiful home surroundings, to visit the Dwight Greenhouses. Spring is the best time of the year, but visitors are always welcome at any time. When out for a walk or a drive do not fail to include our greenhouses in your tour. Come now and see 10,000 rose plants and 8,000 carnation plants in bloom and one of the most complete assortments of flowering plants being grown for Easter, including Easter lilies, crimson rambler roses, Azaleas, all kinds of flowering bulbs, tulips, hyacinths, narcissus, jonquils, crocus, and beautiful cyclamen, cineraria, primroses, tausendschoen, roses spirea, large perfect specimens of Boston ferns, rubber plants, palms and all kinds of decorative plants 20,000 bedding plants of all kinds, including geraniums, foliage plants, pansies, snap dragons, petunias, phlox, pyrethrum, lobelia, moon flowers, heliotrope, salvia, ornamental grasses, begonia, cannas, dusty miller, cosmos, fuchsias and 50 other varieties.

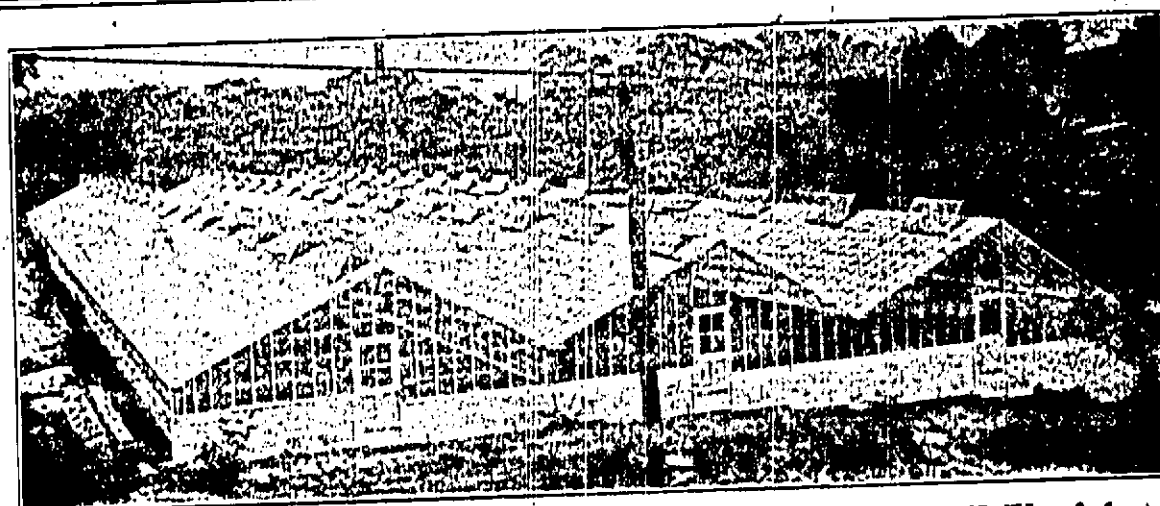

A New Department Added--- Landscape Gardening.

In the present age a great interest is manifested in the beauty of surroundings; yet many misunderstand the term "landscape gardening," believing it to be a term applied to the laying out of large grounds or parks. In many ways this is true, it being there that its broadest scope is realized, nevertheless its fundamental rules and principles are quite as applicable to the small home grounds as to the large estate.

With a little study and good judgment it is an easy matter for anyone to arrange their grounds in an attractive manner. We will help you.

This department will furnish the public with trees and shrubs, hedge plants, vines and everything that generally comes under the head of nursery stock. We will offer our experience as plantmen to secure for every patron a finished and beautiful result and at a comparatively small cost. After supplying you with the best northern grown guaranteed nursery stock we will provide you if you wish with an experienced man to do the planting, in fact, we will take care of the entire work from beginning to end.

It is time now to commence planning if you are going to make your home and grounds beautiful, or if you want only a few individual shrubs or flowers. Let us have your order. We can show you thousands of hardy shrubs growing in Janesville that were grown in the same nurseries from which our source of supplies come.

Dwight's Greenhouses, Wholesale and Retail Florists

30,000 square feet of glass covering four city lots presents a most wonderful sight. It shows what nature will do if aided by men. More roses are grown in our houses than in any other green houses in Wisconsin excepting in Milwaukee. We were criticised by many for building our houses so large claiming Janesville and vicinity could never use all the flowers. The fact is right now we are none too large. This department also the landscape department are under the management of Mr. H. E. Humiston, who for 20 years has lived, loved and studied plants, shrubs and flowers. As a boy he was an apprentice in one of the largest nursery concerns in America, Stores & Harrison of Painesville, Ohio. He has grown palms, ferns and decorative plants for a large wholesale and retail florist, and for the past six years, previous to his coming to Janesville, he grew American Beauty roses for one of the largest florists of Chicago. Mr. Humiston's services will be placed at the command of our patrons to give meaning and beauty to landscapes, to grow a perfect rose, carnation or flowering plant, and to plant each flower, tree or shrub for a reason. This has been his life long study.

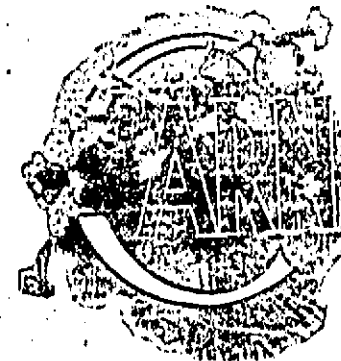

FLOWER SHOP

CUT FLOWERS

We grow our own flowers and lots of them. They are grown with the idea of producing blooms that will last longer after cutting.

This department owes its success to this fact. We give you the best blooms that can be grown and at a price lower than it has been your custom to expect. The immensity of our business makes this fact possible, a statement whose truth your inspection will prove.

ARRANGEMENTS

Special and Appropriate Funeral Designs

Arranging floral tributes of affection has been made a study by us. A very appropriate design may always be secured, either at the Flower Shop or at the Greenhouses at very modest prices. Likewise the most elaborate creations

ORDER DEPARTMENT

This department has been systematized in such a manner that we have reached a stage of perfection. Orders received by mail, phone or telegraph can be handled with such dispatch that deliveries will be made at the desired time, and absolute reliance can be placed upon our promises. When desired orders will be shipped out the same day they are received, and special care is given to the packing so that goods will be received in good condition.

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.
Entered at this postoffice at Janesville, Wis., as second class mail matter.
MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.
Daily Edition—By Carrier.
One Month $1.00
One Year $10.00
One Year, cash in advance $9.00
Six Months, cash in advance $5.50
Daily Edition—By Mail.
CASH IN ADVANCE.
One Year $10.00
Six Months $6.00
Three Months $3.50
One Year, Rural Delivery in Rock Co. $11.00
One Year, Rural Delivery in other counties $12.00
Weekly Edition—One Year $1.00
Long Distance Telephone, No. 77.
Editorial Rooms—Rock Co. phone, 42.
Editorial Rooms—Bell phone, 77.
Business Office—Both lines, 77.
Job Room—Both lines, 77.
BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Snow flurries and colder tonight, Sunday fair and colder.

GAZETTE FEBRUARY CIRCULATION.

Sworn circulation statement of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for February, 1909.

DAYS	Copies	DAYS	Copies
1.....	4815	18.....	4856
2.....	4800	19.....	4859
3.....	4790	20.....	4859
4.....	4824	21.....	4858
5.....	4827	22.....	4858
6.....	4820	23.....	4858
7.....	4810	24.....	4858
8.....	4843	25.....	4858
9.....	4847	26.....	4858
10.....	4852	27.....	4858
11.....	4858	28.....	4858
12.....	4858	29.....	4858
13.....	4858	30.....	4858
14.....	4858	31.....	4858
Total.....	116357

116357 divided by 24, total number of issues, 4848 Daily average.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

DAYS	Copies	DAYS	Copies
1.....	1834	17.....	1817
2.....	1834	18.....	1817
3.....	1834	19.....	1817
4.....	1815	20.....	1817
5.....	1815	21.....	1817
6.....	1815	22.....	1817
7.....	1815	23.....	1817
8.....	1815	24.....	1817
9.....	1815	25.....	1817
10.....	1815	26.....	1817
11.....	1815	27.....	1817
12.....	1815	28.....	1817
13.....	1815	29.....	1817
14.....	1815	30.....	1817
15.....	1815	31.....	1817
Total.....	44944

44944 divided by 13, total number of issues, 3457 Semi-Weekly average.

This is a correct report of the circulation of the Janesville Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for February, 1909, and represents the actual number of papers printed and circulated.

II. H. BLISS, Business Mgr.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of March, 1909.

GRACE P. MILLER, Notary Public.

My commission expires July 14, 1909.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

"For every achievement there must be an idea first—must be thought out, figured out and accepted first."

"Many a good idea has been lost because the first efforts to introduce it were futile. It wasn't accepted."

"Some men who accept a new idea give it a short, unfair trial, and because it does not pay quickly, declare that it is no good."

"The best ideas in the world have been worked out through many failures."

"It takes some faith—a great deal of it—to get a new idea established and it takes courage to meet the prejudice of men who are used to doing the thing the other way—the old way."

"Every new idea that has come to the world has met with opposition."

"Printing first and to be done secretly. The first man who ever carried an umbrella was stoned for it. The effort to introduce stoves met with stubborn resistance. The railroad, telegraph, typewriter, linotype machine and rural mail delivery were opposed and ridiculed."

"It is well for you as a merchant to remember those things when considering a new idea."

"No one can calculate what an idea is worth in your business."

"If it wasn't for ideas you wouldn't make a cent."

"Times are changing and new ideas of merchandising are daily coming. They are certainly worth considering by you. Worth it, because ideas are the cornerstones of your profits."

"It is never well to say to yourself, 'I am working money, doing it this way.' The old way is good enough for me."

"It is better to say, 'I'll look into this new idea. If I think it is good I'll adopt it. Precedent be damned.'"

"Always keep your hatch string out for an idea."

This comprehensive statement of the value of an idea was written by Clarence Somley and published in "The Dry Goods Reporter" some months ago. It was recently reproduced in neat circular form by a firm of Chicago printers, and sent out to the trade.

The outcome of an idea, when put in motion, is usually a theory, and while many theories are impractical, the progress of the world would be extremely slow if time-worn rules, often considered sacred, were never abandoned.

Twenty-five years ago the state of Florida was favored with two public-spirited citizens who possessed large ideas concerning the development of the state, and a sublime faith in the future which prompted them to invest time and money freely.

One of these men was Henry M. Flagler, of east coast fame; the other, President Plant of the great Planters railway system, whose energies were devoted to building up the west coast.

The severe frosts in the early nineties, satisfied these enterprising men that the state could never become a large and certain orange producer, and both men had discovered that the soil was not adapted to general agriculture, and so no money was spent to encourage farming immigration from the north.

But the state offered other attractions which prompted a more certain and much larger revenue than either fruit or products of the soil, and so a friendly rivalry developed between these two great railway men in providing facilities for carling for the crop of northern and eastern suckers which migrated like the birds to enjoy the summer climate of the sun-kissed state.

St. Augustine, 25 miles south of Jacksonville, was the home of Mr. Flagler. It was also the terminus of the only railroad from the north, and every train from December until April, was crowded with tourists with plenty of money to spend and no good place to spend it.

Mr. Flagler, anxious to accommodate, built the famous Ponce de Leon hotel, and another equally large, and then provided for the overflow by building the east coast railroad which extended down the beach 300 miles to Miami.

Towns sprang up along the line, and soon Daytona, Ormond and Palm Beach became prominent because of the great hotels and beautiful grounds, established and owned by Mr. Flagler to care for his winter guests.

The Royal Palm, at Palm Beach, a six-story frame building, is said to be the largest hotel in the world, and the clubhouse, across the way, the Monte Carlo of America, frequently handles $50,000 a day, at its gaming tables.

The East Coast railway, was equipped with fine Pullman trains, and no northern sleeper was permitted to go south of St. Augustine, so that all tourists commenced to pay tribute to Mr. Flagler when they struck his home town, and continued the practice as they went on down the line.

So he caught them going and coming, for he owned all the hotels of importance, and the catch was profitable, representing 150,000 health and pleasure seekers, every winter.

The Florida Special, which left New York over the Pennsylvania Central, Feb. 1st, was composed of a dining-car and six Pullmans for St. Augustine. It carried 125 through passengers, whose railroad and Pullman tickets cost $1500, with $500 more for dining-car service.

This was only one of many trains which pour their cargo of human freight into St. Augustine every day for four months in the year, and what Mr. Flagler gets, out of them before they get back may be imagined when the fact is considered that many of these people spend money as freely as water.

On the train mentioned was a young married couple who stood on the rear platform, while the train waited for a few minutes at a crossing near Charleston. In the sand at the side of the track was a score of little darters, all shouting for pennies and scrambling for them in the dirt as the passengers throw them out.

The young man with a new wife had a $5 bill and threw it out to the little buggers, saying to his wife, "That ought to help some," and the smile of approval in answer indicated that Flagler had at least two suckers on the train.

The little line of steamers which plied between Miami and Cuba was unable to handle the crowd and the waiting list was always large, so Mr. Flagler decided to extend his line 180 miles south to Key West, an undertaking which no corporation would attempt to handle, for it meant a roadbed of concrete, spanning channels from island to island, with 50 miles out in the open gulf where the water was from 15 to 20 feet deep, and storms a constant menace.

But this man of ideas, of indomitable will and purpose, asked neither aid nor advice, and last year 140 miles of the road was completed to Knights Key, within 40 miles of Key West, and this year the work may be finished, and the country placed in close touch with Havana, only 80 miles away.

This great enterprise represents $150,000,000 of Flagler's money, but his hotels, his railroad and steamship lines are great money-getters, and if the old gentleman, now in his 70th year, lives 10 years more, his money will all come back.

In the meantime, the state of Florida, as well as the nation at large, is indebted to this great man for what he has achieved.

The East Coast railroad is the only outlet for the Indian river country, the great orange and pineapple belt of Florida. Many thousands of cases of choice fruit are shipped from this section every year, and northern as well as southern capital is freely invested.

When his road is completed to Key West a trip to Cuba will no longer be a luxury, and the products of the fertile island will find ready access to the American market.

In the meantime what happened to Mr. Plant and his ideas? He started out to do for the west coast what Mr. Flagler accomplished for the east, but after building and equipping the Tampa Bay hotel, the finest in the state, his career was cut short by death, and as there was no one to take up his work his railroad was sold, and two years ago the city of Tampa bought the beautiful hotel and grounds for $125,000.

Another of his hotels, a 400-room house at Punta Gorda, has been closed for the past two years, and is rapidly going to decay. So while the east coast flourishes, the west coast jogs along in native simplicity and is noted for the best place in the world to wear out old clothes, enjoy the simple life, and cultivate the natives in their carefree existence.

There is a state law which says that any proprietor of a retail liquor establishment who is convicted of violating an ordinance or statute must lose their license if the attention of the council is called to the conviction. Export opinion takes that this would apply to selling liquor on Sunday or selling to minors. It is merely a suggestion in a way of warning to some who are careless.

In another column will be found the application for a franchise asked for by the Cincinnati Construction Company to build and operate an interurban and city railway in Janesville. It is one out of the proposed Janesville-Madison interurban project so long talked of.

They are having lots of fun down in Washington over this attempt of the insurgent members of the coming congress trying to defeat Speaker Cannon and revise the rules for the management of congress. It is safe to say that Cannon will be elected despite their efforts and will rule as he has in the past.

They are now springing a new wedding anniversary—the Thirtieth; they call it the Cement wedding. Well, there are some men who have been married for thirteen years that think it is sort of a cement tie that binds.

The state legislature is ready to continue the investigation until April 10, and think by that time they will have all the necessary evidence to either clear or convict the different candidates for the Senatorial primary.

It must seem hard for those game wardens who have been paid for politics for twelve years past to find this is not what they are hired for.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.
Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

WRECK OF THE REPUBLIC.

The unlucky liner Republic lies thirty fathoms deep off the island of No Man's Land—appropriately named—where the choppy waves and the rust will complete her wreck.

It was the fog that sent the Florida smashing into the ill-fated vessel. But out of the pall of that night's fog shone a heroism seldom equaled in the long annals of the sea—heroism of woman's devotion and man's self-sacrifice.

Said Henry Savage Lander, a traveled Englishman, "The American woman are magnificent in their courage." Gray-haired grandmothers and slips of girls made the perilous leap from the tossing boats to the gangway of the battle without a tremor.

The law of the seas, "Women and children first," which has never been violated in recent years save in the one notable episode of a cowardly French crew, made strange happenings. For instance—

"Never will I leave him!" shouted a wife to whom her husband clung. As the man was rudely shoved back the woman exclaimed:

"He is blind!"

Then the law of the seas was broken, and the blind husband went into the boat with his wife.

No less heroic than the others was a lad of fourteen years. His mother grasped him about the waist as she descended to the boat.

"If I stick to you!" shouted the manly fellow. He wrenched himself loose from the arms of his mother to stay with the men.

These are but hints of the happenings. So that it might seem that awful wreck was worth all it cost, and more, in its vivid revelation of lofty human virtues under stress.

Captain Scotty, standing on the bridge of his ship until it sank beneath him; Blank at his wireless, piercing the air with his pathetic, "O. Q. D." calls and crews bearing themselves like supermen, women and children going the perilous ways without a fear—these exhibitions of high human qualities reveal humanity at its very best.

Great is the cunning of man to keep his wreck silent for hours by collision bulkheads; great is the miracle machine that sends out its messages to the ships that pass in the night; great is the ocean.

But—
Greater than cunning or machine or ocean is man.

INDIANA CASES DECIDED.

State's Supreme Court, Rules on Telegraph and Liquor Suits.

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 12.—A telegraph company does not violate the law by charging an extra ten cents for delivering a message in the city more than a mile from its office.

The supreme court so decided today, affirming a judgment refusing to mandate the Western Union to deliver messages free in all parts of Indianapolis.

The statute which has been in force 56 years is unreasonable now, the court holds, because the city has grown far beyond its old bounds.

The supreme court also affirmed a judgment granting a saloon license to Park B. Rhodes of South Bend. The court says that a remonstrance by a taxpayer against granting a saloon license, to be effectual, must be "on account of immorality or other untidiness," as prescribed by the statute.

Read advertisements and save money

One under molars that keep the cheeks from falling in, the most useful of all teeth. At excursion rates one week.
DR. BURRUS
Office over Archie Reid's Store.

Just What We Want

is what our customers say when they see the new way

I Am Selling Sterling Silver Table Ware

at reduced prices. We are pleased to please you as we please others. This is all at

PYPER'S

F. L. WILBUR & CO.

PURE FOOD GROCERY.
305 W. Milwaukee St.
Both phones 99.

Fresh Vegetables

- Lettuce.
- Radishes.
- Green Onions.
- Parsley.
- Asparagus.
- Tomatoes.
- Vegetable Oysters.
- New Potatoes.
- Cottage Cheese, 5c pkg.
- Choice Seeded Raisins, 7c pkg., 4 for 25c.
- Malaga Grapes, 25c lb.
- Fresh Herring, 10c glass.

TIN SHOP

For 25 years I have been doing general repair and jobbing work in Janesville. Now, with my own shop fully equipped I am prepared to handle all business and will appreciate an opportunity to figure with you.

FRANK DOUGLAS

Cash Hardware Store.
15-17 SO. GIVER ST.

Don't Waste Your Old Carpets

Use them for making beautiful soft Plush Rugs, ideal for dining room, bed room, or hall.

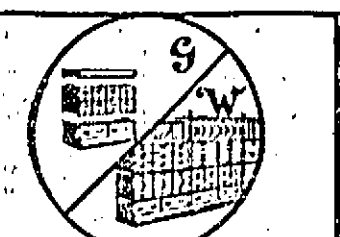

Telephones us for prices or drop us a card.
Janesville Rug Co.
Old Phone 3324-121 N. Main St.

Stencil Patterns

We have a full line of for pillow tops, curtains, draperies, scarfs and linens, together with the dyes and all instructions for doing stencil work.

Patterns, 10c and up.
Dyes, 15c.
Brushes, 5c and 10c up.

The Art Store DIEHLS

can not expand beyond the compass of the Globe-Wernicke "Elastic" system of filing cabinets. Largest assortment manufactured in the world.
FOR SALE BY

Frank D. Kimball

MYERS THEATRE

PETER L. MYERS, MANAGER.
1870-39TH YEAR-1909.
The Leading Theatre of Southern Wisconsin.
New Phone, 609. Wisconsin Phone, 5602.

SPECIAL RETURN ENGAGEMENT TOMORROW NIGHT

at 8:30 P. M. Sharp

The Elite Event...

MISS JEANIE FLETCHER

The World's Greatest Scottish Singer

In a Mixed Program of National and International Airs —ASSISTED BY—

MISS VERONICA FERGUSON

The Famous and Charming Violinist And a Select Company of Entertainers

Secure your seats well in advance as the great reputation of this most excellent attraction will draw a crowded house.

PRICES - $1.00, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seats now on sale

Mason & Hamlin Grand Piano, same, used by Otto Meyer Concert Co.

Six Grocers and One Meat Market Each Require Two Private Line Rock County Telephones to Handle Their Orders From Our Subscribers.

They are Jones, Dedrick Bros., Johnson, Nash, Tarrant & Os-good, Skelly and George Yahn.

You can have a Rock County telephone in your residence for $1.00 per month.

"Buy it in Janesville" and get double the service for the same money.

ROCK COUNTY TELEPHONE CO.

Hot Chocolate

Hot Tomato Bouillon, and Hot Drinks of all kinds. Come here for your morning or afternoon luncheon. Let us serve you any of our delicious hot drinks.

Ice Cream

Sodas and Sundies always served at the INNOVATION FOUNTAIN.

J. E. HOUSE

The Confectioner
When you think of Flowers think of House.

Thought of a Philosopher.
"When I play with my cat, who knows whether I do not make her more sport than she makes me?"—Montaigne.

Lincoln's Declaration.
I shall try to correct errors, when shown to be errors; and I shall adopt new views, as fast as they shall appear to be true views.—Lincoln.

Read advertisements and save money

TO MAKE WOMEN'S WORK LIGHTER AND EASIER

—Is part of the mission of Bissell's "Cyclo" Bearing Carpet Sweepers.

In addition to this, they save carpets and rugs, and also the disagreeable dust and dangerous germs within the home, as they sweep the work of sweeping in one-fifth of the time, and with 95% less effort than the corn broom requires.

In a word, BISSELL'S "CYCLO" BEARING Carpet Sweepers make sweeping a pleasant duty. Instead of a positive drudgery. No woman having even one carpeted room should let a day pass without procuring a Bissell Sweeper. If she is not already using one.

Price $2.50 and $3.00.

Mrs. E. H. HALL
Hall & Huebel, Proprietors.

E. H. PELTON

213 E. Milw. St.
Phone 819 Red.

TIN SHOP

General Repairing expertly done.

METAL CEILINGS.

FURNACE REPAIRING.

Have the gutters repaired now before the rains begin. The best work is cheapest in the end.

SPECIAL

Monday and Tuesday COVERED ENAMEL COOKING KETTLES

Round bottom, patent device for holding cover when pouring off water. Made on extra heavy steel base covered with 3 coats of enamel—white inside, mottled white and blue outside. 4 1/2 in. high, 19 in. diameter, a perfect piece of enamel ware. Sells regularly at $5.00, special for Monday and Tuesday... 39c

NICHOLS STORE
32 South Main St.

KOEBELIN'S

Watches, Jewellery, Music.
HAYES BLOCK.

BRODHEAD TO HAVE HOME TALENT PLAY

Good Cast of Players for Farce Which Will Be Presented in Broughton's Opera House.

Brookhead, March 13.—Following is the cast for the farce which is to be presented by local talent in Broughton's opera house on Wednesday evening, March 15th:

Mr. Kent.....Miss Nellie Stale
Mrs. Kent.....Miss Nellie Stale
Robert Austin.....Miss Nellie Stale
Grace Austin.....Miss Nellie Stale
Lisle.....Mrs. D. Gombard
George.....G. E. Dixon
Messieurs J. N. and Elmer Emmington and children were visitors in Oxfordville, Friday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cole.
Messrs. F. A. Cole and John Miller of Juba, spent Friday in the city.

Carlita Stewart of Edgerton, was here between trains on Friday to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stewart.

Mrs. Florence Alexander was a passenger to Freeport and Rockford, Friday, where she will visit friends.

The prospects for the average acreage of tobacco to be raised this season, are good in this vicinity. The tone on matters in tobacco centers is more encouraging and growers will raise the usual amount.

DEMOCRATS TO FIGHT TARIFF ON COFFEE

Will Oppose Attempt to Tax "The Breakfast Table" to Raise More Revenue.

Washington, Mar. 13.—There will be no duty on coffee, nor will the new tariff bill provide for a stamp tax, if the Democrats in congress can prevent it. The minority is expected to line up with a solid front against both plans.

If the Republicans do not provide for an inheritance tax in the new bill, the Democrats declare they will fight to have an amendment made to the bill which would assess a tax on legacies, and, it is said, would in this way embarrass the Republican on account of the recommendations of President Roosevelt and Taft.

The minority members, especially those on the ways and means committee, are preparing for the new tariff bill, but as they have not seen the new bill and will not be informed of the changes provided for until it is introduced, it is not known on what schedules the main fight will be made.

Representative Underwood of Alabama, who is a minority member of the ways and means committee, declared that if the duties imposed by the tariff were determined on a revenue basis, there would be no need for taxing the breakfast-table or imposing a stamp tax. He said an inheritance tax offsets the best means for making up the deficit in the treasury, and that if the new bill contained a provision for such a tax neither the duty on coffee nor on beer need be increased.

One of the provisions of the bill which many Republicans, as well as Democrats, are likely to attack is that taking off the duty on iron ore. The Douglas bill imposes a rate of 40 cents a ton on iron ore, and the importations in 1927 amounted to more than $3,000,000, from which the duties collected amounted to more than $100,000. The placing of iron ore on the free list was advocated by John W. Gates and numerous foundry and furnace concerns of the east and Pacific coast.

Representatives of iron mining interests in the Lake Superior, Mesabian and Adirondack regions were favorable to a reduction of from 15 to 25 per cent in the duty on iron ore, if it was proposed to make a general downward revision of the tariff. The national granite favored the placing of iron ore on the free list as being in line with the idea of conserving the natural resources of the country.

ROCKEFELLER FIGHTS RUM

Saloonkeeper Says Oil King Provides Money for "Drys."

Providence, R. I., Mar. 13.—In order to detract public attention from the operations of the Standard Oil corporation and other big trusts John D. Rockefeller is financing the anti-saloon movement to the center of the stage. This is the declaration of William F. Maloney, president of the Rhode Island Retail Liquor Dealers' association, in a circular addressed to all retail liquor dealers in New England. The circular invites the dealers to attend a meeting in this city on Saturday night to discuss ways and means of meeting the public opposition to the saloons. Mr. Maloney says: "The anti-saloon agitation is largely artificial and is financed by John D. Rockefeller for the purpose of giving the public something to think about that will take its mind off the anti-trust agitation."

OPPOSES OPTION ELECTION.

Indianapolis Official Says City Should Not Outlaw Saloons.

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 13.—County Auditor Albert Bahr says a great many inquiries have been coming to him concerning a possible petition for a local option election in this county. "A local option election would prevent serious financial difficulties to Marion county," said Mr. Bahr. "Such an election would cost the county from $10,000 to $12,000. Should the local optionists succeed, the county and city would lose yearly receipts from saloon licenses to the amount of from $200,000 to $400,000. Saloon licenses receipts by the county alone amount to nearly $100,000, all of which goes to the schools. For these reasons, I do not think it would be advisable at this time to interfere with the saloon license income."

Will Not Go Far Wrong.
Let us a little permit nature to take her own way! she better understands her own affairs than we.—Monte Carlo.

SANTA FE'S NEW FREIGHT ROUTE

Belen Cut-Off Is Ready for Operation and First Trains Will Be Sent Over It Next Week.

Topolus, Kan., March 13.—The management of the Santa Fe expects to send its first trains over the Belen cut-off line next week, though it may be several weeks later before the full service is in operation. All the through freight traffic is to be diverted from the main line to the Belen cut-off. This will route all the freight business from the main line at Newton, via Mulvane, Wellington, Amarillo, and the Belen branch to the main line at Rio Puerco, N. M. By this means the Santa Fe avoids the Raton and Glorieta mountains in northern New Mexico, which are the steepest and most difficult grades on the entire system. The change of route will apply only to the freight traffic, no change being contemplated in the passenger business.

TODAY'S CHICAGO MARKETS.

(Special to the Gazette.)
Chicago, March 13.

Cattle receipts, 400.
Market steady.
Hogves, 4.60@4.70.
Dressed steers, 4.50@4.60.
Western steers, 4.10@4.20.
Stocks and feeders, 3.50@4.50.
Cows and heifers, 3.00@3.75.
Calves, 6.00@8.50.

Hog receipts, 22,000.
Market, mostly 5c lower.
Light, 6.50@6.70.
Mixed, 6.40@6.50.
Heavy, 6.30@6.40.
Rough, 6.20@6.30.
Good to choice heavy, 6.60@6.80.
Pigs, 5.25@6.10.
Bulk of sales, 6.60@6.75.

Sheep
Sheep receipts, 3,000.
Market, weak.
Native, 3.25@3.75.
Western, 3.40@3.75.
Yearling, 5.90@7.15.
Lamb, 6.50@7.70.
Western lamb, 6.70@7.75.

Wheat
May—Opening, 1.18 1/4 @ 1.17 1/4; high, 1.17 1/4; low, 1.16 1/4; closing, 1.17 1/4.
July—Opening, 1.05 1/4 @ 1.04 1/4; high, 1.05 1/4; low, 1.04 1/4; closing, 1.05 1/4.
Sept.—Opening, 98 1/2; high, 99; low, 98 1/2; closing, 98 1/2.

Rye
Closing—80@81.
Closing—65@69.

Corn
May—68 1/2.
July—67 1/2.
Sept.—67 1/2 @ 67.
Dec.—69 1/2.
March—67 1/2.

Oats
May—65 1/2.
July—65.
Sept.—64 1/2.

Poultry
Turkeys—17.
Springers—15.
Chickens—14.

Butter
Creamery—22@23 1/2.
Dairy—20@25.

Eggs
Eggs—No quotation.

Live Stock.
Cattle, Neb., Mar. 13.

CATTLE—Market slow and steady. Native steers, $3.50@4.50; cows and heifers, $3.25@4.25; range steers, $3.50@4.50; range cows and heifers, $3.00@4.00; calves, $3.50@4.50; bulls and stags, $3.00@4.00.
HOGS—Market 5 to 10 cents higher. Heavy, $6.50@7.50; mixed, $4.50@5.50; light, $4.50@5.50; pigs, $3.50@4.50; bulk of sales, $4.50@5.50.
SHEEP—Market slow and weaker. Yearlings, $4.00@4.50; ewes, $3.50@4.50; lambs, $5.00@7.50.

JANESVILLE MARKETS.

Janesville, Wis., March 3.

Feed.
Ear Corn—$1.40@1.50 per 100 lbs.
Corn Meal—$1.40@1.50 per 100 lbs.
Feed Corn and Oats—$23.00
Standard Middlings—$23.00@23.50.
Oat Feed—$1.25@1.35 per 100 lbs.
Bran—$20@22 per ton.

Oats, Hay, Straw.
Oats—60@61c.
Yearling, 8.00@7.10.
Lamb, 6.75@7.50.
Western lamb, 6.75@7.50.

Butter and Eggs.
Creamery Butter—20 1/2c.
Dairy Butter—20@27c.
Eggs, Packed—18c@20c.
Eggs, Fresh—20c@23c.

Elgin Butter.
Elgin, Ill., March 1.—Butter—Firm: 20c; milk for the week, 435-800 lbs.

Vegetables.
Potatoes—80@85c bu.
Rutabagas—50c@60c bu.
Onions—60@75c.
Squash—$1.25@1.50 doz.
Carrots—50c@60c doz.
Turnips—50c@60c.

Apples—$5.00@6.50 per barrel.
Rye—73c for 60 lbs.
Barley—55c@56c per bu.

Poultry Market.
Live fowls are quoted at the local markets as follows:
Chickens—10c.
Springers—10c.
Ducks—10c.
Turkeys—16c.

Geese—$7@9 per dozen.
Hogs, different grades, 5 1/2 @ 6c live.
Pigs—4 1/2 @ 5c live.
Steers and Cows
Steers and Cows, 4.00@5.00.

Matches Made of Grass.
At Rholapur, British India, a factory is successfully making matches with sticks of a peculiarly stiff form of native grass.

New York's Oldest Park.
New York City has one public park that is 250 years old, and that is Bowling Green, which was the playground of the first Dutch settlers.

Transients in New York.
The transient hotel population of New York is figured at 250,000 people a day. The hotel properties are valued at over $80,000,000.

Save money—read advertisements.

The last picture taken of President Roosevelt and his family at the White House.

This group shows many of the most prominent leaders of the country, and particularly those who have formed what the newspapers have been pleased to term Mr. Roosevelt's "Tennis Cabinet."

This remarkable picture was taken the afternoon the "Tennis Cabinet" presented the retired president with the bronze figure shown in the foreground of the picture.

The prominent men in the group are as follows:

1—Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt.
2—M. J. Jusserand, French ambassador.
3—Truman H. Newberry, Roosevelt's secretary of the navy.
4—Solicitor General Henry M. Hoyt, one of the prominent candidates for the attorney generalship in Taft's cabinet now held by Mr. Wickelsham.
5—Assistant Secretary of the Navy Satterlee.
6—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Beckman Walthrop.
7—Comptroller of the Currency Lawrence D. Murray.
8—Commissioner of Corporations Herbert Knox Smith.
9—Hon. Gifford Pinchot, head of the government forestry service.
10—U. S. District Attorney Henry L. Stimson of New York.
11—Assistant Attorney General Woodruff.
12—W. W. Heffelfinger, chiefly famed for his football prowess and his last legal work for the government.
13—Hon. George von L. Meyer, Roosevelt's postmaster general.
14—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Francis E. Leupp.
15—Justice Moody of the United States supreme court.
16—Hon. James H. Garfield, Roosevelt's secretary of commerce and labor.
17—John A. Abernethy, President Roosevelt's fighting friend from the west.
18—Hon. Robert Bacon, Roosevelt's last secretary of state.
19—Charles P. Neal, commissioner of labor.
20—Commissioner Daniel J. Keefe.
21—James Cullen O'Laughlin, Roosevelt's last assistant secretary of state, who will now serve as the secretary of the American commission appointed to provide for an American exhibit at the coming Japanese World's exhibition.
22—Dr. Henry Smith Pritchett, president of the Carnegie foundation.
23—William Lach, Jr., President Roosevelt's secretary who is now solicited for the customs collectorship for the port of New York.

LIABLE TO ALTER ENTIRE SYSTEMS

Continued from Page 1.)

through the rotunda of the building I met with Nipper Tandy. And he took me to the Wisconsin and how does he stand.

"Show the most disgraceful country that ever I've seen."

There're planning to hang game wardens.

When the taking of the Green, for the scaffold was being erected, they got to discussing what the carpenters doing.

"Sure they are building a scaffold," remarked one.

"I suppose they are going to hang some game wardens," interposed the other looking up the stairs toward the assembly chamber but in the direction of the memorial investigation committee.

Mineral that St. Patrick's day was near the first freshman started down the corridor singing the following paraphrase to "The Wearin' of the Green":

JOHNSTOWN.
Johnstown, March 13.—Robert Bell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, is seriously ill with rheumatism of the heart. Dr. Dike, the attending physician, held counsel with Dr. Leoni of Janesville Thursday. Miss Rosalind Kohler of Milwaukee has arrived and will care for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldwell entertained a breakfast yesterday.

Suits Are Selling

The early business in the suit department is showing unusual activity, many women appreciating the fact that alterations can be made to better advantage now than during the rush of the later season. The showing of suits today comprises about two hundred garments and among them can be found some of the best styles of the season. The present showing is of suits at medium prices, with special values at $12.50 and $18.75, the latter line being in both misses' and women's sizes, and the $12.50 line being in the junior and little women's sizes. Even if not ready to buy, come in and see what the styles are.

Separate Coats Have the Call

Especially is this true of the full length covert coats of which we show some very nobby styles with a price range from $12.50 to $35. We have these coats on order in several New York houses and nearly every day new ones are seen on display. For girls from 6 to 14 years have a new model in navy blue serge coat at $5.

Simpson's
GARMENT STORE

Save money—read advertisements.

A Sharp Answer.

"I am not happy with my husband. Can I get a separation?" asked a lady of a lawyer. "His life is insured in your favor, isn't it?" "Yes; I made him do that before we married."

"Well, don't separate. He'll live long or away from you!"

Save money—read advertisements.

IT TICKLES THE PALATE--GEORGE'S PEANUT BRITTLE, 15c lb.

FRANK GEORGE, 211 W. Milwaukee St.

Save money—read advertisements.

The New Garmur Cigar

Leaves a very pleasant aroma in its trail--an aroma that will bring forth favorable comment anywhere.

10c Everywhere.

DELANEY & MURPHY Makers

Save money—read advertisements.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Save money—read advertisements.

$11.00 TAILORED DRESS SPECIAL

We put on sale today a nobby line of one-piece wool dresses, pleated waist trimmed with pipings and bands of silk to match; long sleeves. Full skirt with flat pleats in back, trimmed with buttons of same material. These dresses are made of striped voiles, Rajahs, fancy wool Panamas, colors come in seal brown, havanna brown, navy blue, and the new electric blue, sizes 32 to 40. PRICE $11. This is only a slight advance over the price of the material. We bought these dresses from a manufacturer who had a limited amount of material, not enough to make up for road selling, so he figured the cost down to the very narrowest margin and made the price so attractive to us that we readily bought the lot. There will be no more after these are gone.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

Every Woman Knows How Scarce Long Covert Coats Are

We, however, are fortunate in being able to show a large assortment.

THE CORRECT THING IN WELL TAILORED COATS—The long graceful coats of covert cloth are very fashionable for dress and general wear. We have a great many stunning models in the perfectly plain styles; some snug the figure closely, while others are almost loose, $12, $17, $18, $20.

Half Length Black and Covert Coats, $15, $18, $20.

These come in the perfectly plain, mannish styles, some ornamented with large buttons, in the clear tan and cream tan covert cloth, black broadcloth, serge, panama, taffeta and bengaline materials.

$5.48 Fancy Silk Waists

These beautiful fancy silk waists are worth $8, $8 and $10. The styles are beautiful. These waists were purchased from one of our most reliable manufacturers. The workmanship is first class, the designs are unexcelled anywhere and they fit fine. Just the thing to wear with suits or for dressy occasions any time. All sizes. Also a few black. They have three-quarter length sleeves, which many women prefer. Though they can easily be made long by letting out the tucks or by adding insertion and edging.

Mirage--The Mysterious

A rough silk, satin finished. Our second season on this cloth assures you of our confidence in its combined beauty and durability.

The soft finish admits of its being used to bring out the snug, clinging effect, to good advantage.

24 in. $1.35 yd.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

Thos. S. Nolan, H. W. Adams,
C. W. Reeder.

NOLAN, ADAMS & REEDER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

311-313 Jackson Bldg., Janesville, Wis.
306-308 Goodwin Building, Beloit, Wis.

B. F. Dunwiddie, Wm. G. Wheeler, DUNWIDDIE & WHEELER

Attorneys and Counselors,
Janesville, Wis.

12-166 W. Milwaukee St.

DR. ANNA APPLEBY, OSTEOPATH.

316 Hayes Block,
Office hours from 8 a. m. until 12 and 1 to 4 p. m.

New phone 408 Black.

GEO. K. COLLING
Established 1860.

ARCHITECT AND BUILDER
Will hereafter confine himself to ARCHITECTURE.

Plans and specifications furnished. Office with J. P. Baker & Co., 21 N. River Street.

RALPH H. BENNETT PIANO TUNING.

924 Park Ave., Beloit, Wis.
Piano Player and Piano Organ work
a specialty.

Leave orders at J. P. Baker's Drug Store.

M. P. RICHARDSON
ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Now phone—Office, 381; residence
phone, 400.

OFFICE 321 HAYES BLOCK.
Janesville, Wis.

CORYDON G. DWIGHT, M. D.
207 Jackson Block

Practice limited to EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
GLASSES FITTED

Consultation from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5, and by appointment.

New phone 890 red. Old phone 2762.

W. H. BLAIR
ARCHITECT

Room 3, Phosbus Block, Janesville.

Expert Machinist
H. E. LARSEN

Factory and mill repair work is my specialty.

17 N. BLUFF ST.

CONTRACTING & BUILDING Estimates cheerfully furnished on carpentering and masonry work, large or small jobs.

J. A. DENNING
SHOP, 66 SO. FRANKLIN.

Residence, 423 Cherry St. Both phones

HILTON & SADLER
THE ARCHITECTS.

CAREFUL ATTENTION TO EVERY DETAIL.

Office on the Bridge, Janesville.

DR. G. W. FIFIELD
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

Has moved his office into his new residence at 8 Jackson St., next door to Baptist church. Telephone changed to Rock County 451, Bull 4523.

Office hours, 2 to 4 P. M. and Evenings.

E. H. PETERSON
ATTORNEY AT LAW

Janesville, Wisconsin.
Sutherland Block.

New phone Black 640.

JUST THE SAME

You want to get the most for your money. Now assured you do with the Tungsten lamp. It's candle-power never decreases as is the case with the Edison gas lamp.

14 to 2 cents per hour is all a four light Tungsten cluster burns.

Janesville
Electric Co.

BOATS BUILT TO ORDER
General overhauling of boat engines, boats, painting, etc.

JANESVILLE BOAT CO.
23 No. River St.

LIST PREPARED FOR GARDENERS' BENEFIT

Librarian Has Catalogued Books on Gardening—New Books on Library Shelves.

In the spring of the year, when the first buds appear upon the trees and harder blades of grass begin to show green, then there awakens in man the desire to till the soil, the longing to scratch the crust of the earth and plant seeds therein and then to watch the fruits of his labor. At this time, his favorite form of literature generally consists of seed catalogues, illustrated in brilliant colors and describing each variety in glowing terms. This first favor of enthusiasm finally cools down and he sets to work digging and planting. If he is an experienced gardener he will be interested in the things which other gardeners have done, and if he is an amateur, he will be glad to learn from the experience of others. The public library has very adequate resources for those who desire to read the works of men and women, who have made a study of gardening and horticulture. A list of these works has been prepared for the public by the librarian and is published herewith:

Garden Making, by Bailey.

How to Make a Fruit Garden, by Flocher.

Practical Garden Book, by Hume.

Successful Fruit Culture, by Maynard.

A Self-Supporting Home, by Saint-Maur.

Yard and Garden, a Book of Practical Information for the Amateur Gardener in City or Town, by Baker.

The Fat of the Land, Story of an American Farm, by Streeter.

Book of Vegetables and Garden Herbs, a Practical Handbook and Planting Table for the Vegetable Garden, by French.

The Garden, You and I, by Mabel Oakwood Wright.

Woman's Handy Garden, by Ely.

Another Handy Garden Book, by Ely.

Common Sense Gardens, How to Plan and Plant Them, by Sewell.

The very best material to be found on vegetable gardening can be found in the Farmers' Bulletin of the Dept. of Agriculture, which are on file at the library and may be drawn out.

New Books

A number of new books, books of travel and works of biography and fiction have been placed on the library shelves. The list includes the later works of popular fiction writers and works by standard authors on the other subjects:

Confessions of a Railroad Signalman, by Fagan.

Florida Enchantments, by Dimock.

Egypt and Its Monuments, by Heli-ona. Mr. Heliema imparts to the reader some of the "eternal fascination of the land of sand and ruin and gold." The book is illustrated by colored reproductions of paintings by Jules Guerin.

Reminiscences of Carl Schurz, Third volume, Carl Schurz, Death Interrupted the preparation of this volume, which covers the years 1863-69, closing with the beginning of his career in the senate.

Fiction

Walking Gentleman, by Prior.

Stom of the Crimson Dahlia, by Loekke.

Little Brown Brother, by Hyatt.

Joan of Garloch, by Kinross.

Bridge, by Mrs. Herman Bosch.

Henry of Navarre, by Wynne.

Under the Southern Cross, by Robins.

Mystery of the Yellow Room, by Loroux.

Betty Pembroke, by Hancock.

From Their Point of View, by Lo-ano.

Affair at Pine Court, by Gilbert.

Courage of Captain Plum, by Car-wood.

Elusive Plimporel, by Grezy.

Heart of the Red Mrs. by Anderson.

The One and I, by Freeman.

Miss Minerva and William Green Hill, by Calhoun.

Lonesome Trail, by Bower.

$600 REWARD FOR GRAVEYARD GHOULS

Has Been Offered by Brothers of Late Heinrich Thinsvold Whose Body Was Stolen on Feb. 18.

$300 reward for the return of the body and $300 more for the arrest of the ghoul who decorated the grave of Heinrich Thinsvold in the Newark cemetery, supposedly on the night of February 18, is the offer made by the brothers of the deceased.

The date on which the outrage was perpetrated has been established by the following circumstances. The interment took place on the 17th and on the following evening, as a family was driving by the cemetery, one of the boys observed an open grave. The next day, on the following day, he declared that the boy must have been mistaken as he had dug no grave on the day preceding. A clue from this clue which seems to fix the date, no others have been discovered. It was not until last Sunday that the grave was opened and the casket found to be empty.

Sherriff Schell has visited all of the railroad offices and possible shipping points in that locality but, so far as can be learned, no suspicious boxes or bundles have been sent out recently to Chicago or other neighboring cities.

RECEIVES A PATENT FOR NEW GARMENT

F. F. Lewis Has Patent For Bifurcated Garment in List of Recent Wisconsin Patents.

Honedist, Morsell & Childwell, so-licitors of patents, Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee, report patents issued to Wisconsin inventors, March 2, as follows:

W. F. Adams, Milwaukee, dishing tank; W. F. Olson, Milwaukee, train pipe coupling; C. M. Conradson, Madison, machine for spirally grinding interchangeable spirally ground bottle neck and stoppers therefor; E. Fraser, N. Crandon, rail joint; B. F. Fry, La Crosse, cushion tire for vehicle wheels; P. F. Lewis, Janesville, bifurcated garment; G. F. Rauch, Medford, trench or sewer digger; F. W.
Sold, Manitowish, Wis., clasp; A. C.

GOOD SHOW AT THE
MYERS' LAST NIGHT

Large Crowd of Theatregoers Well Pleased with Play, "A Daughter of Judea."

The amateur acts which were to have been given after the regular performance at the Myers Theatre
last evening were not held on account of the failure of five of the six contestants to put in an appearance.

The play given last evening was "A Daughter of Judea" and was one of the best performances given this week. Miss Agosti as "Leah, the Jewess," gave a very high-class portrayal of the part she took. Lettie
Lander, Carl T. Jackson, and E. A.
Kerr in the roles of "Madeline," "Rudolph" and "Nathan, the schoolmaster," exhibited the dramatic art. The rest of the cast played equally as well.

The story of the play deals with the loves of two women for the same man, "Leah, the Jewess" whom "Rudolph, the hero," really loves and who loves him, and "Madeline," who loves him, but for whom the consuming fire of his heart does not burn.

The only vaudeville acts introduced last evening were the acrobatic exhibitions of Zech and Zech. These gentlemen did some extraordinary stunts on the flying rings separately and together.

THE CHEESEMAKERS'
OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Election of New Officials Was Held at Business Meeting Yesterday—
Prizes Awarded.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Monroe, Wis., March 12.—The Southern Wisconsin Cheesemakers'
and Dairymen's association, at the business meeting yesterday, elected officers as follows: President, R. J.
Stamper, Monroe; vice-president,
Alex. Schiller, Harwood; secretary,
Henry Elmer, Monroe; treasurer, Joe
Ackerman, Monroe; directors, A. C.
Truchel, John Whittell and Joshua
Klasy, Monroe.

First prizes on cheese were awarded as follows: Swiss, John Scherff,
Woodford; block Swiss, Otto Matter,
South Wayne; brick, Gottlieb Marty,
Madison. Other cheese exhibited received complimentary scores.

Mrs. Caroline Hilton of Treton, Ia., was called home by the illness of her brother, John Hilton.

Mrs. John Darling and Mrs. Anna
West of this city are visiting relatives at Freeport.

Louis Dodge, E. F. Houtman and Paul J. Weirich are in Milwaukee attending the auto show.

J. D. Dunwiddie was at Madison
yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Penn and children are visiting relatives at Clinton Junction.
Jesse Gravenor was here from Albany yesterday.

COUNTY HAS NEW
VOTING PRECINCT

And the Total is Now Thirty-seven—
Fifth Ward of Beloit to Be Ballot
In Two Sections.

County Clerk Howard Lee has received notification from the Beloit city clerk that the common council of that city has divided the Fifth ward into two voting precincts. This increases the county's total of voting precincts to thirty-seven. Mr. Hamilton, representative of the Rochester,
N. Y., concern, which manufactures
the voting machines in use in the five Janesville wards and two wards
in Beloit, is expected here either today or Monday to inspect them.
Blankets, tickets, and other supplies for these machines are sent out each year
from the factory.

EIGHTY-TWO OF
BARACA CLASS MET

At Festal Board Last Evening and Listened to Talks by Pliny Norcross, A. E. Matheson, and Others.

Some eighty-two members of the Men's Baraca Class of the Baptist church partook of a fine dinner served by the ladies of the congregation in the church parlors last evening and enjoyed a very interesting program which included several vocal solos by Prof. J. S. Taylor and a number of interesting addresses.
Pliny Norcross spoke on "Opportunities for Young Men"; P. C. Harper, on "Reforms in Politics and Business"; A. E. Matheson on "World-Wide Peace"; and Thomas S. Nolan
on "Jews Between Crusades." In the absence of the president, A. E.
Lorvick, the Rev. J. C. Hagen acted
as toastmaster. The Baraca Class, which now has an active membership
of over one hundred, is an organization which meets every Sunday morning directly after the regular morning church service. Present-day social and economic problems as well as
Sunday school lessons are discussed.

WERE MARRIED IN THE
FOREST CITY WEDNESDAY

Miss Emma Dunn and John Howland, both of this city, journeyed to Rockford on Wednesday and were wedded there by Judge Baker. They will return to Janesville to reside
after a brief honeymoon trip.

CONGENIAL WORK
And Strength to Perform It.

A person in good health is likely to have a genial disposition, ambition, and enjoy work.

On the other hand, if the digestive organs have been upset by wrong food,
work becomes drudgery.

"Until recently," writes a Washington girl, "I was a railroad stenographer, which means full work every day."

"Like many other girls alone in a large city, I lived at a boarding house. For breakfast it was mush, soggy meat, soggy cakes, black coffee."

"After a few months of this diet I used to feel sleepy and heavy in the mornings. My work seemed a terrible effort, and I thought the work
was to blame—too arduous."

"At home I had heard my father speak of a young fellow who went long distances in the cold on Grape-Nuts and cream and nothing more for breakfast."

"I concluded if it would take him
over a morning's heavy work, it might help me, so on my way home
one night I bought a package and the next morning I had Grape-Nuts and
milk for breakfast."

"I stuck to Grape-Nuts, and in less than two weeks I noticed improvement. I can't just tell how well I feel, but I remember I used to walk
the 12 blocks to business and know
how good it was simply to live."

"As to my work—well, did you ever feel the delight of having congenial
work and the strength to perform it?
That's how I felt. I truly believe there's life and vigor in every grain
of Grape-Nuts."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., Road "The Road to Wellville," in place, "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

GOOD SHOW AT THE
MYERS' LAST NIGHT

Large Crowd of Theatregoers Well Pleased with Play, "A Daughter
of Judea."

The amateur acts which were to have been given after the regular performance at the Myers Theatre
last evening were not held on account
of the failure of five of the six contestants to put in an appearance.

The play given last evening was "A Daughter of Judea" and was one of
the best performances given this
week. Miss Agosti as "Leah, the Jewess," gave a very high-class portrayal of the part she took. Lettie
Lander, Carl T. Jackson, and E. A.
Kerr in the roles of "Madeline," "Rudolph" and "Nathan, the schoolmaster," exhibited the dramatic art. The rest of the cast played equally as well.

The story of the play deals with
the loves of two women for the same
man, "Leah, the Jewess" whom "Rudolph, the hero," really loves and
who loves him, and "Madeline," who loves him, but for whom the consuming fire of his heart does not burn.

The only vaudeville acts introduced
last evening were the acrobatic exhibitions of Zech and Zech. These gentlemen did some extraordinary stunts
on the flying rings separately and together.

THE CHEESEMAKERS'
OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Election of New Officials Was Held at
Business Meeting Yesterday—
Prizes Awarded.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Monroe, Wis., March 12.—The Southern Wisconsin Cheesemakers'
and Dairymen's association, at the
business meeting yesterday, elected
officers as follows: President, R. J.
Stamper, Monroe; vice-president,
Alex. Schiller, Harwood; secretary,
Henry Elmer, Monroe; treasurer, Joe
Ackerman, Monroe; directors, A. C.
Truchel, John Whittell and Joshua
Klasy, Monroe.

First prizes on cheese were awarded as follows: Swiss, John Scherff,
Woodford; block Swiss, Otto Matter,
South Wayne; brick, Gottlieb Marty,
Madison. Other cheese exhibited received complimentary scores.

Mrs. Caroline Hilton of Treton, Ia., was called home by the illness of her
brother, John Hilton.

Mrs. John Darling and Mrs. Anna
West of this city are visiting relatives at Freeport.

Louis Dodge, E. F. Houtman and Paul J. Weirich are in Milwaukee attending the auto show.

J. D. Dunwiddie was at Madison
yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Penn and children are visiting relatives at Clinton Junction.
Jesse Gravenor was here from Albany yesterday.

COUNTY HAS NEW
VOTING PRECINCT

And the Total is Now Thirty-seven—
Fifth Ward of Beloit to Be Ballot
In Two Sections.

County Clerk Howard Lee has received notification from the Beloit
city clerk that the common council of
that city has divided the Fifth ward
into two voting precincts. This increases the county's total of voting
precincts to thirty-seven. Mr. Hamilton, representative of the Rochester,
N. Y., concern, which manufactures
the voting machines in use in the five Janesville wards and two wards
in Beloit, is expected here either today or Monday to inspect them.
Blankets, tickets, and other supplies for these machines are sent out each year
from the factory.

EIGHTY-TWO OF
BARACA CLASS MET

At Festal Board Last Evening and Listened to Talks by Pliny Norcross, A. E. Matheson, and Others.

Some eighty-two members of the Men's Baraca Class of the Baptist church partook of a fine dinner
served by the ladies of the congregation in the church parlors last evening and enjoyed a very interesting program which included several vocal
solos by Prof. J. S. Taylor and a number of interesting addresses.
Pliny Norcross spoke on "Opportunities for Young Men"; P. C. Harper,
on "Reforms in Politics and Business"; A. E. Matheson on "World-Wide Peace"; and Thomas S. Nolan
on "Jews Between Crusades." In
the absence of the president, A. E.
Lorvick, the Rev. J. C. Hagen acted
as toastmaster. The Baraca Class, which now has an active membership
of over one hundred, is an organization which meets every Sunday morning directly after the regular morning
church service. Present-day social and economic problems as well as
Sunday school lessons are discussed.

WERE MARRIED IN THE
FOREST CITY WEDNESDAY

Miss Emma Dunn and John Howland, both of this city, journeyed to Rockford on Wednesday and were wedded there by Judge Baker. They will return to Janesville to reside
after a brief honeymoon trip.

CONGENIAL WORK
And Strength to Perform It.

A person in good health is likely to have a genial disposition, ambition, and
enjoy work.

On the other hand, if the digestive organs have been upset by wrong food,
work becomes drudgery.

"Until recently," writes a Washington girl, "I was a railroad stenographer, which means full work every day."

"Like many other girls alone in a large city, I lived at a boarding house. For breakfast it was mush, soggy meat, soggy cakes, black coffee."

"After a few months of this diet I used to feel sleepy and heavy in the mornings. My work seemed a terrible effort, and I thought the work
was to blame—too arduous."

"At home I had heard my father
speak of a young fellow who went
long distances in the cold on Grape-Nuts and cream and nothing more for
breakfast."

"I concluded if it would take him
over a morning's heavy work, it
might help me, so on my way home
one night I bought a package and the next morning I had Grape-Nuts and
milk for breakfast."

"I stuck to Grape-Nuts, and in less than two weeks I noticed improvement. I can't just tell how well I feel, but I remember I used to walk
the 12 blocks to business and know
how good it was simply to live."

"As to my work—well, did you ever
feel the delight of having congenial
work and the strength to perform it?
That's how I felt. I truly believe
there's life and vigor in every grain
of Grape-Nuts."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., Road "The Road to Wellville," in place, "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

TRAMPS FIGHT OVER
BOTTLE OF WHISKY

Two Tramps. Mix Up When Bottle Containing Their Supply of Red Eye is Broken.

A quart bottle half full of red-eye proved to be an apple of discord, and the convivial companionship of Dan and his pal suddenly disappeared into this air when the custodian of the bottle saw its contents wasted on the unappreciative tips and gravel of the road bed. This morning the two

Are You Sick? I WILL HELP YOU

Treatment.
Letter of Advice
176 MEDICAL BOOK
FREE

FREE TREATMENT TO ALL WHO ASK

To you—if you are sick—if you suffer—if you are afflicted with any ailment—if you are worn out, tired or falling—if you have an ache or a pain—if you need medical advice—if you are not in perfect health—if life is a dragging, miserable existence—if you lack the energy, the vim and vigor and "Go" that make life worth living. To you, if you are rich or poor—young or old—man or woman—To You This Offer is Made, no matter where you live.

All Diseases—Four all diseases that can be cured by modern medicine. I have cured hundreds that others said were incurable. Desperately chronic cases are my specialty. I like to begin where others fail. Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Trouble, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and all other diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs and Incurable Consumption, Nervousness, Neuritis, All Female Troubles, Heredity, Impure Blood, Anemia, Scrofula and All Disruptions and Diseases of the Skin, Partial Paralysis, Piles, Heart Trouble, Lumbago, Obesity, General Debility and all other chronic ailments that medicine will reach. I have cured. Men and women, weak, debilitated, worn out, tired and falling. Let me prove that I can cure you.

Valuable Medical Book Free—Write to me at once and in addition to the letter of advice, I will send you a copy of my new HOME MEDICAL BOOK. This volume should be in every household. It contains over 175 pages of practical information and expert professional advice. Describes all diseases, explains all symptoms, gives the causes of diseases, tells how to prevent sickness and explains how a great many diseases may be cured in your own home.

This is All I Ask—No money—No promise to buy—No papers to sign—No obligation on your part. This is all you have to do. Write me a letter describing your case in your own words. Tell me as much about your condition as you can. It will help me to succeed. Write me today, and by return mail I will send you a treatment, couched in a plain wrapper, postage paid, and free—Free to you—Free to any afflicted member of your family, friend or neighbor. It may mean long life—health—strength—vigor—to you if you write today. You have nothing to lose, everything to gain. Do it now.

DR. JAMES W. KIDD, P-67 Kidd Bldg., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The LAST VOYAGE of the DONNA ISABEL

By Randall Parrish Author of
"Bob Hamilton of Placer," etc.

Illustrations by Dearborn Melvill
Copyright A. C. McClurg & Co., Inc.

I saw comparatively little of De Nova, the second officer, during this period, and gained an impression that he was endeavoring to avoid meeting me. Yet I ran across him twice in company with Celeste, once in the cabin, and again in the narrow deck space overlooking the stern, and began to hope, vaguely, that the girl was winning him over to our interests. With the others I sought to approach I made no progress. McKnight seldom showed his nose above deck, and then only to smoke in sullen silence, seated gloomily on the edge of the main hatch or to the lee of the chart-house. Olson was undoubtedly honest enough, yet without intelligence. His eyes told of a faithful dog. The Chilean, an amiable-faced young fellow wonderfully deficient in chin, I learned had been assigned as assistant to the cook, and was thus kept too busy inside the galley even to be approached. Indeed, so far I had not seen his face on board the ship.

CHAPTER XIV.

In Which De Nova Speaks.

What now occurred came upon us with such suddenness that I find it difficult to relate the incidents in detail. We must have been below the fifth degree of south latitude, and about 135 degrees west, with the wind strong and occasionally pulling us into squalls, bearing flakes of snow which stung exposed flesh and left a thin mantle of white along the decks. It was Tuttle's watch below, and as I paused in the protection of the companionway looking forward, while I got my pipe going, I could see De Nova on the bridge, wrapped up like a mummy, and crouching low down behind the tarpaulins. All about was a wild sea scene, never to be looked upon amid any other stretch of waters on this globe—a dull, dead picture of utter desolation, of madly racing waves, of green, sullen sea, of pale blue sky, the very frost in the air apparent; a cold, dreary expanse of motionless distance wherever the eye looked—a desert of water below, a void of air above. Big Bill Anderson, his head still bound up where I had cranked him, slouched in the doorway of the chart-house, staring aft, and a moment later De Nova came lumbering down the steps from the bridge and spoke with him for some earnestly. The boatswain finally went forward, clinging to a lifeline to keep footing on the slippery deck, and the second officer clanked along the weather-rail until he reached the companion.

"I would like to have talk with you, Mons. Stephens," he said, quite respectfully, swaying to the wild leaps of the vessel. "Maybe if we go to ze lee of ze cabin here we'll be out of ze win'."

I followed him in silence, wondering what could be coming now, yet ready enough to take advantage of any opportunity which might present itself. De Nova braced his back against the rail, his cap drawn so low that I could perceive little of his face but the glitter of black eyes.

"We're a little bit boozered 't'at to do, Anderson an' me," he began, evidently ill at ease and scarcely knowing how to express himself, "an' so we talk it ova, an' decide maybe we bettah speak w'z you about it now, before ze maittair get mor' bad, or ze men forward catch on to ze facts an' get ugly. Maybe it come out all right, maybe not, but, by gar, it ain't no nice job to go sail 'bout zeese zeese under a madman—sacro, non!"

"A madman!" I echoed in amazement. "Do you mean Tuttle?"

He nodded gravely, his expression devoid of all merriment.

"Tis ze way it was. We not know sure w'ezzer you see it zat way or no, but, damme, Mons. Stephens, if ze fellow ain't mad as ze March hare, He was ze fine sailor all right—out, zat was true—nobody get more out of ze sea. Sacro—zan—ho—kat. Sacro! he on ze bridge so I not see very much, but Bill, he tell me how it was. He say Tuttle sneak up behind you twice, like he would hit you in ze back. Once, when you was right by ze rail, Bill, he sung out to you, so as to make you look round. Maybe you will remember zat, monsieur?"

I nodded, beginning now to grasp the full gravity of these revelations.

"Bill he not got much use for you, Mons. Stephens," the speaker went on, smiling grimly, "an' won't have w'z his head ache, but he was no dam fool. He know w'at it mean if you was knock' out. By gar, it be hell if Tuttle was off his nut, you was ze only navigator on ze ship, an' it not do for us lose zee. Zat was w'y Bill he care; he not want to die in zis sea; by gar, non! Well, after w'z he go below, an' ze ze first officer did ze dammedest sing ever I saw on ze ship. He bustled into ze fo'c'st'le, monsieur, without any invite from any man Jack or 'en, an' plumped down on his knees by Snyder's bunk, an' begun to pray. Mons. Dieu, I wonder zay not murder him. Larsen come out, an' bog Bill an' me to take him out, but he pray all ze time till we dump him in his own cabin. He not fight, he jus' pray. Sain'te Marie! it make me sick; an' ze men zay talk, an' ask question." He paused, passing one hand across his eyes. "But zat not ze worst, monsieur—sacro, non! he see ze ghost."

"De Nova," I said, quietly, "you have said I was an educated man. Well I have some reason to believe you are, also, and first of all I should like to know why you pretend otherwise? Why do you endeavor to talk like a fool's tale?"

He hung in the wind, surprised both by my direct question and the sudden change of topic. Then the old smile came back to his lips.

"Maybe it was habit, monsieur, from 12 year' passed in zat sort of company."

"I was correct then in believing you have received more than an ordinary education?"

"I took ze classical course in ze college at Martinique, an' zen two year' of ze train' for ze priesthood. Out-

drive ze sheep hard; it make my hair white ze way he hol' on. Maybe I not be 'fraid to take ze chance of ze voyage if it just be all men on board. I not care zen, for I risk my life w'z ze ozzera. But, monsieur, I keep myself to sink of ze ladders down below, an' how zat fellow was gettin' more crazy all ze time. Sacro! it make me crazy, too. Zeese no knowin' w'at he do when he zat way; he take apells w'z maybe he murder. I hear him mutter it. I see it in ze man's eye. He was much afraid of you, monsieur, an' zat in ze time when such fellows get w'at you call it?—ze dangare."

I started into the mate's face, barely able to comprehend this quick justification of my forebodings, brought so closely home. Tuttle was odd enough to be sure, eccentric in both word and action, cracked undoubtedly in matters of spiritism, but that he was a really dangerous lunatic had never entered my head. I shivered at sudden realization of the peril we were in, but remained only partially convinced.

"What reason have you to think the man as bad as all that?"

"Well, monsieur, I watch him for long time; Bill, he watch him, for we not like ze way he act since we first sail. Maybe he be lunny before zen, but he get worse on ze voyage. Bill an' me, we talk it all ova, an' ze mate not tell ze same story ze way he did in Vulpurais. He forget some, he add more. By gar, I lose much my faith in it. If zat ship show up, or ze island, either, I be mighty surprise. Ouh-ouh! Ze mate Tuttle, he crazy all right, we know zat, for sure. Do he not walk w'z you, monsieur?"

"No, not lately; indeed, he has scarcely spoken to me since our trouble."

"Zat was it; zat was w'y you not notice. Well, he talk much—w'at you call ze blue streak—to Bill an' me. Sain'te Anne, how he talk! He have now talk every day, an' ze notions he speak make a dog sick, by gar! Lissen; I tell some stings. I was on watch, when he comes up from ze cabin; he not half dress, but it cold as hell. De Nova shivered; 'yet he walk back an' forth, back an' forth, across zee in front of ze cabin, like ze lion in ze cage, making w'z himself, an' wringing his hands. Maybe he keep it up two hour, an' I sink he freeze. Ze cook's cat was 'sleep in ze longboat. I watch w'z he come up an' see ze poor devil. Quick he grab her by ze tail an' fling it way overboard, like zat. I hear ze cat yell, an' zen ze apinal. Zat seem to make him feel better, for he laugh, an' zen go below."

The mate changed his position, and I noticed his eyes looked sleepless and tired.

"Larsen might he take another turn. He dog you all ova ze deck, monsieur, like he haunt you maybe. I was on ze bridge so I not see very much, but Bill, he tell me how it was. He say Tuttle sneak up behind you twice, like he would hit you in ze back. Once, when you was right by ze rail, Bill, he sung out to you, so as to make you look round. Maybe you will remember zat, monsieur?"

"Tuttle. Sneak. Up. Behind. You. Like He Would Hit You In Ze Back."

I nodded, beginning now to grasp the full gravity of these revelations.

"Bill he not got much use for you, Mons. Stephens," the speaker went on, smiling grimly, "an' won't have w'z his head ache, but he was no dam fool. He know w'at it mean if you was knock' out. By gar, it be hell if Tuttle was off his nut, you was ze only navigator on ze ship, an' it not do for us lose zee. Zat was w'y Bill he care; he not want to die in zis sea; by gar, non! Well, after w'z he go below, an' ze ze first officer did ze dammedest sing ever I saw on ze ship. He bustled into ze fo'c'st'le, monsieur, without any invite from any man Jack or 'en, an' plumped down on his knees by Snyder's bunk, an' begun to pray. Mons. Dieu, I wonder zay not murder him. Larsen come out, an' bog Bill an' me to take him out, but he pray all ze time till we dump him in his own cabin. He not fight, he jus' pray. Sain'te Marie! it make me sick; an' ze men zay talk, an' ask question."

"De Nova," I said, quietly, "you have said I was an educated man. Well I have some reason to believe you are, also, and first of all I should like to know why you pretend otherwise? Why do you endeavor to talk like a fool's tale?"

He hung in the wind, surprised both by my direct question and the sudden change of topic. Then the old smile came back to his lips.

"Maybe it was habit, monsieur, from 12 year' passed in zat sort of company."

"I was correct then in believing you have received more than an ordinary education?"

"I took ze classical course in ze college at Martinique, an' zen two year' of ze train' for ze priesthood. Out-

drive ze sheep hard; it make my hair white ze way he hol' on. Maybe I not be 'fraid to take ze chance of ze voyage if it just be all men on board. I not care zen, for I risk my life w'z ze ozzera. But, monsieur, I keep myself to sink of ze ladders down below, an' how zat fellow was gettin' more crazy all ze time. Sacro! it make me crazy, too. Zeese no knowin' w'at he do when he zat way; he take apells w'z maybe he murder. I hear him mutter it. I see it in ze man's eye. He was much afraid of you, monsieur, an' zat in ze time when such fellows get w'at you call it?—ze dangare."

I started into the mate's face, barely able to comprehend this quick justification of my forebodings, brought so closely home. Tuttle was odd enough to be sure, eccentric in both word and action, cracked undoubtedly in matters of spiritism, but that he was a really dangerous lunatic had never entered my head. I shivered at sudden realization of the peril we were in, but remained only partially convinced.

"What reason have you to think the man as bad as all that?"

"Well, monsieur, I watch him for long time; Bill, he watch him, for we not like ze way he act since we first sail. Maybe he be lunny before zen, but he get worse on ze voyage. Bill an' me, we talk it all ova, an' ze mate not tell ze same story ze way he did in Vulpurais. He forget some, he add more. By gar, I lose much my faith in it. If zat ship show up, or ze island, either, I be mighty surprise. Ouh-ouh! Ze mate Tuttle, he crazy all right, we know zat, for sure. Do he not walk w'z you, monsieur?"

"No, not lately; indeed, he has scarcely spoken to me since our trouble."

"Zat was it; zat was w'y you not notice. Well, he talk much—w'at you call ze blue streak—to Bill an' me. Sain'te Anne, how he talk! He have now talk every day, an' ze notions he speak make a dog sick, by gar! Lissen; I tell some stings. I was on watch, when he comes up from ze cabin; he not half dress, but it cold as hell. De Nova shivered; 'yet he walk back an' forth, back an' forth, across zee in front of ze cabin, like ze lion in ze cage, making w'z himself, an' wringing his hands. Maybe he keep it up two hour, an' I sink he freeze. Ze cook's cat was 'sleep in ze longboat. I watch w'z he come up an' see ze poor devil. Quick he grab her by ze tail an' fling it way overboard, like zat. I hear ze cat yell, an' zen ze apinal. Zat seem to make him feel better, for he laugh, an' zen go below."

The mate changed his position, and I noticed his eyes looked sleepless and tired.

"Larsen might he take another turn. He dog you all ova ze deck, monsieur, like he haunt you maybe. I was on ze bridge so I not see very much, but Bill, he tell me how it was. He say Tuttle sneak up behind you twice, like he would hit you in ze back. Once, when you was right by ze rail, Bill, he sung out to you, so as to make you look round. Maybe you will remember zat, monsieur?"

"Tuttle. Sneak. Up. Behind. You. Like He Would Hit You In Ze Back."

I nodded, beginning now to grasp the full gravity of these revelations.

"Bill he not got much use for you, Mons. Stephens," the speaker went on, smiling grimly, "an' won't have w'z his head ache, but he was no dam fool. He know w'at it mean if you was knock' out. By gar, it be hell if Tuttle was off his nut, you was ze only navigator on ze ship, an' it not do for us lose zee. Zat was w'y Bill he care; he not want to die in zis sea; by gar, non! Well, after w'z he go below, an' ze ze first officer did ze dammedest sing ever I saw on ze ship. He bustled into ze fo'c'st'le, monsieur, without any invite from any man Jack or 'en, an' plumped down on his knees by Snyder's bunk, an' begun to pray. Mons. Dieu, I wonder zay not murder him. Larsen come out, an' bog Bill an' me to take him out, but he pray all ze time till we dump him in his own cabin. He not fight, he jus' pray. Sain'te Marie! it make me sick; an' ze men zay talk, an' ask question."

FOR COUGHS KING OF CURES FOR COLDS

THE WONDER WORKER

FOR THROAT DR. KING'S LUNGS

NEW DISCOVERY

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS.

PREVENTS PNEUMONIA

I had the most debilitating cough a mortal was ever afflicted with, and my friends expected that when I left my bed it would surely be for my grave. Our doctor pronounced my case incurable, but thanks be to God, four bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me so completely that I am all sound and well.—MRS. EVA UNCAPHER, Grovetown, Ind.

Price 50c and $1.00 ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED! Trial Bottle Free

SOLD AND GUARANTEED BY PEOPLE'S DRUG CO. KING'S PHARMACY.

monsieur." His eyes wandered out over the empty waters. "Zen ze sea call me, an' maybe ze devil also. Zat was ze whole of it."

"Yet you believe in ghosts?"

"The creole crossed himself. 'Sacro, I know not w'at I believe. But it make ze blood chill to hear Tuttle tell w'at he see down zee in ze cabin. Ze question not w'at I believe, monsieur; it w'at we do w'z him?"

I struck the rail with my fist, vexed at my own inability to take the initiative.

"Yes, that's the issue, De Nova," I returned quickly, "but I'm not the one to decide it. I've known what I would do from the first, if I had the power. Tuttle's insanity was not necessary to make me act—his brutality to those women below, his shunning me into this fool scheme, were enough. I am for taking possession of the vessel, even if we have to lash him to his berth."

"Zat was not to be done, monsieur."

"And why not? Must we sail with a madman? This is no regular voyage; not a man aboard has signed papers. Tuttle is no better than a pirate, and to overthrow him and assume control of the yacht would not be mad. We might sail straight back to Vulpurais and not a thing could be done with us."

The mate shuffled from one foot to the other, his black eyes hardening.

"Now, zen Larsen, Mons. Stephens," he burst out, "zat was only ze half of it. Sure we not regular crew, but we partners. Zat was ze way it is. We take ze big chance for ze profit. Zee sail-ormen for'ard have nozing against zis Tuttle. Zee sink he tell truth. Maybe zey sink him a bit queer in ze head, maybe zey not like his prances, or his talk of ze spirits, but so long he sail ze ship all right, zey stick w'z him. Zat all zey know—how sail ze ship; datn ze rest! Zey believe w'at he toll, zey divide zee zee zee every watch below. Zat's it. If we lay hand on ze mate, by gar, ze lady fight for him till zey drop. Zey will do it, monsieur, an' no pretty talk you put up will make zee sink anything but zat you try rob zem of zee share. I know sailormen, an' in case like zis, you got to go dam slow."

"You are speaking for yourself and Anderson as well as the men, I take it?"

"(TO BE CONTINUED.)"

The Real Teacher.

I care not whether a man is called a tutor, an instructor, or a full professor, nor whether any academic degrees adorn his name; nor how many facts or symbols of facts he has stored away in his brain. If he has these four powers: clear sight, quick imagination, sound reason, and right strong will, I call him an educated man, and fit to be a teacher.—Henry Van Dyke.

Kisses and Matrimony.

The first stage of matrimony is when a woman kisses her husband to find out if he has been drinking. In the second stage if she does any kissing it is preliminary to asking him for money.—New York Telegram.

Her Supreme Pleasure.

Probably nothing pleases a woman more than her ability to look younger than some other woman who is the same age, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Misery in Head

"I had misery in my head, was irritable—wretched. A druggist recommended Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the first I improved, and I continued until I was entirely well again." MISS VIOLA BAKER, Orange, Texas.

If you are subject to headache, backache, neuralgia, epilepsy, weak stomach—the chances are your nervous system is run down. All the organs get their energy from the nerves, and when they are out of order, it is because you lack nerve force.

Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and consequently strengthens the action of the organs.

The first bottle will benefit. If not, your druggist will return your money.

Dr. REA & CO., Milwaukee, Wis.

Served His Country Well.

Scipio Africanus was one of the greatest soldiers, says Julius Caesar, in Roman history. He defeated Hannibal and his Carthaginians at Zama, a city of Carthage, on October 19, in the year 202 B. C., and gave to Rome the ascendancy over the then known world.

Keep Close to Nature.

For since his blessed kingdom was first established in the green fields, by the lakeside, with humble fishermen for its subjects, the easiest way into it hath ever been through the wicket-gate of a lowly and grateful fellowship with nature.—Henry Van Dyke.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for this terrible disease. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the system. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer the hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

20 YEARS Experience as a Specialist

DR. REA

WILL BE AT THE MYERS HOTEL

JANESVILLE, WIS.

SATURDAY MARCH 20. RETURNING EVERY MONTH.

Dr. Rea has been educated in the best hospitals of Europe and America.

Consultation in German and English.

He is eminently successful in all chronic diseases, as proven by the many cures that he has effected in cases which have baffled the skill of physicians in the general practice of the science. His long and continued practice and experience has made him so proficient that he can locate any disease in a few minutes. Treats all chronic, nervous and surgical diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Early consumption, bronchitis, bronchial catarrh, constitutional catarrh and neuralgia.

LIVER, STOMACH AND BOWEL TROUBLES, dyspepsia, sick headache, pain on the stomach, appendicitis, gall stones, constipation, and the many diseases dependent on weak and inactive digestive system.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES, diabetes, Bright's disease, ineffectiveness of the urine, burning urine and passing of the urine too frequently.

BLOOD AND SKIN DISEASES, heart disease, dropsy, swelling of the limbs, open sores, eruptions of the skin, pimples and eruptions of all descriptions.

DRUGGISTS AND ALL DRUG STORES, everywhere, will supply this medicine. It is sold by the proprietors, Dr. Rea & Co., Toledo, Ohio, and by all druggists.

CHRONIC DISEASES and those diseases of deep-seated nature, diseases of all descriptions, that cannot be cured by the usual means, are cured by Dr. Rea's medicine. It is sold by the proprietors, Dr. Rea & Co., Toledo, Ohio, and by all druggists.

Dr. REA & CO., Milwaukee, Wis.

HANDY TIME TABLE

Chicago via Clinton—C. & N. W. Ry.—4:20, 4:30, 4:55, 6:00, 8:00, 9:10, a. m.; 12:50, 2:05, p. m. From Chicago via Clinton, 12:20, 1:40, a. m.; 12:25, 8:00, 8:50, 9:15, p. m.

Chicago via Detroit—C. & N. W. Ry.—7:10, a. m.; 3:00, p. m. From Chicago via Detroit, 5:50, 6:35, 11:45, a. m.; 6:45, 4:10, p. m.

Chicago via Davis Jct.—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—9:00, 11:20, a. m.; 5:55, p. m. Returning, 10:15, a. m.; 1:00, 5:45, p. m.

Chicago via Walworth—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—7:20, 10:35, a. m.; 5:22, 5:30, p. m. Returning, 10:25, 11:00, a. m.; 6:50, 8:55, p. m.

Madison, Edgerton, Stoughton and Pointe du Lac—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—8:15, 10:25, 11:00, a. m.; 3:45, 6:58, 8:55, p. m. Returning, 7:15, 10:25, a. m.; 5:17, 6:55, p. m.

Madison Evansville and points north C. & N. W. Ry.—12:20, 6:00, 11:45, a. m.; 4:10, 6:50, 9:10, 9:20, 11:00, p. m. Returning, 4:25, 4:50, 5:55, 7:05, 9:05, a. m.; 3:00, 6:50, p. m.

Milwaukee via Jefferson Jct.—C. & N. W. Ry.—7:50, a. m.; 12:35, 8:45, p. m. Returning, 7:50, a. m.; 12:35, 8:45, p. m.

Milwaukee, Whitewater and Waukesha C. M. & St. P. Ry.—7:20, 7:30, 10:25, a. m.; 4:45, p. m. Returning, 10:10, 11:05, a. m.; 3:37, 6:45, 9:25, 9:35, p. m.

Dodgeville—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—11:00, 10:25, a. m.; 7:00, p. m. Returning, 10:15, a. m.; 4:45, p. m.

Beloit, Rockford—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—9:00, 11:20, a. m.; 5:55, p. m. Returning, 10:15, a. m.; 1:00, 5:45, p. m.

Beloit, Rockford, Belvidere and De Kalb—C. & N. W. Ry.—7:10, 9:10, a. m.; 3:00, p. m. Returning, 11:45, a. m.; 4:10, 6:45, 7:52, p. m.

Afton and Beloit only—C. & N. W. Ry.—8:00, a. m.; 12:40, 7:00, p. m.

Fond du Lac, Oshkosh and Winnebago—Chicago & Northwestern Railway.—6:50, a. m.; 12:45, p. m. Returning, 12:35, 8:45, p. m.

St. Albans, Jefferson, Lake Mills, Watertown—C. & N. W. Ry.—6:50, 7:50, a. m.; 12:45, 8:15, p. m. Returning, 7:50, a. m.; 12:35, 3:00, 8:45, p. m.

Afton, Hanover, Footville—C. & N. W. Ry.—11:10, a. m. Returning 3:30 p. m.

Delavan, Racine, Freeport and Rock Island—C. M. & St. P. Ry.—11:20, a. m.; 5:22, p. m. Returning 1:00, 6:50, p. m.

Daily, Sunday only. All others daily except Sunday.

Rockford & Interurban—Cars arrive 15 minutes before the hour and leave 15 minutes after the hour. First car leaves 6:00; last car arrives 6:45. Last car leaves for Beloit

STATE OF WISCONSIN. Circuit Court for Dane County.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF JOHN J. HARRIS, DECEASED.

Notice is hereby given that the parties interested in the estate of John J. Harris, deceased, are to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Dane County, Wisconsin, on the 15th day of March, 1909, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause why the executor of the will of said deceased should not be appointed.

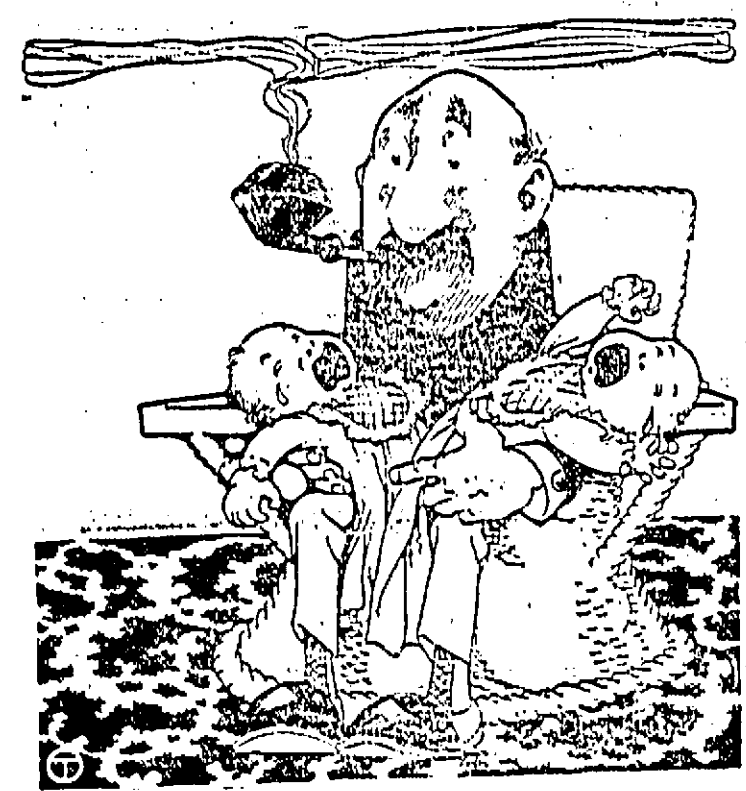

Witness my hand and the seal of said court, this 13th day of March, 1909.

MATTHEW LINDSAY, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Dane County, Wisconsin.

Noted for publication, this 13th day of March, 1909.

STATE OF WISCONSIN. County Court for Rock County.

Notice is hereby given that a regular term of the County Court, to be held in and for said county at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said county, on the 15th day of March, 1909, at nine o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered: The application of Mary L. Harrell for the appointment of said county, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate to such other persons as are by law and the last will and testament of said deceased, entitled thereto.

CAUGHT BOTH WAYS.

Men are most peculiar creatures. Their lives are but a bubble. Discontented when they're single, Unhappy when they're double.

Find a single man. ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE. Right side down, above folls.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man doesn't feel just right, when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strong.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It c

